Near Present Building

16-Acre Tract Optioned As LaCroft School Site

The Board of Education Monday night took a six-month option on a 16-acre tract opposite the present LaCroft School as a possible site for an elementary school, one of four new buildings to be constructed in the $4.3 million program.

The resolution authorized the option of the Harold A. Dawson property for a price of $20,000.

LOCATED at the rear of the LaCroft School, the tract has a frontage of approximately 445 feet along Boring Ln. and extends eastward nearly 1,600 feet, overlooking the Routes 30 and 7 freeway.

Dawson's home is the only building on the tract, which is adjoined on the north by the property of John R. Sayre.

Dawson has reserved three-tenths of an acre, where the Buckeye Color Co. which he operates, is located. It supplies pottery colors.

In making his recommendation, Supt. Paul H. Blair said board members also examined two other possible sites for the elementary school to serve the Pleasant Heights - LaCroft Glenmoor area.

It is the second tract on which the board has taken an option as a possible school site.

IT secured an option in September on the Hilbert property off Maine Blvd. as the site for the proposed new high school.

Following the lengthy meeting in which several other items in connection with the bond issue were cleared, board members conferred formally with Robert F. Beatty, architect, on various problems concerning the construction program.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk - treasurer, advised the board the 676 bonds in denominations of $5,000 have been delivered to the board.

They will be signed by the clerk and Harry D. McConville, president, after an approving opinion has been received from Squires, Sanders & Dempsey of Cleveland, the board's consultant on the bond issue.

THE BOARD adopted a resolution authorizing the investment of the proceeds from the $3,380,000 bond issue after Miss Liebschner reported on a conference with Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper and James A. Reaney, executive vice president of the First National Bank.

Miss Liebschner said she was informed by Reaney that he had consulted with several brokerage firms who advised the proceeds be invested in short-term U. S. Government securities.

A similar method was followed in the early 1950's when the school board sold a $2,725,000 bond issue.

The bond issue was sold to Halsey, Stuart & Co. of Chicago and 12 associated investment firms on its bid of 3% per cent and a premium of $14,567.

MISS Liebschner also was asked to check with the State Department of Education on the legality of investing the premium in long-term securities.

The clerk said several of the

Viet Cong Kill Three Americans

9 South Vietnamese Also Victims; 10 Others Wounded

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Viet Cong guerrillas overran a small outpost at the southern tip of Viet Nam today, killing three American soldiers and nine South Vietnamese.

Ten Vietnamese soldiers were wounded in the surprise attack by about 50 Communists.

The casualties brought the total of Americans killed in action in South Viet Nam to 229 since December 1961.

Two of the Americans killed today were infantry officers and the third was an enlisted man. Their outpost 125 miles from Saigon apparently was being used as the command post in an operation. The Viet Cong force, small by usual standards, probably infiltrated the post before opening fire, a U.S. source said.

In the An Lao mountain valley, 30 miles northeast of Saigon, Viet Cong guerrillas were making a determined attempt to overrun a district headquarters.

The battle was still going on tonight, a U.S. spokesman said.

American helicopter pilots reported the Viet Cong moving openly across the valley.

"We have been shooting at them in the open and running across roads and at automatic weapons positions in the trees," said Maj. Clement A. Wyllie, of Chattanooga, Tenn., commander of an armed helicopter unit.

The Viet Cong blew up the only bridge leading to the tiny valley. Military sources reported three armored personnel carriers moving to the battle area were hit and were in flames.

Vehicles around the barbed-wire fort at the district headquarters were burning, Wyllie reported. He said there were many dead and wounded Vietnamese inside the fort.

A relentless fire from Communist heavy weapons poured into the fort, and helicopters were being continually fired on.

Council Holds Up Bill Creating Park Board

Council agreed Monday night to hold up final passage of legislation implementing an initiative ordinance approved at the Nov. 3 general election by providing for appointment of a three-man Board of Park Commissioners.

Councilman Norman Bucher, Democrat, pointed out the legislation does not provide for both political parties to be represented on the board, which will be named by Mayor Merrill D. Hall, Republican. Council gave the ordinance first reading, but delayed enactment to clear up Bucher's question.

Based on provisions of the Ohio Revised Code and the ordinance approved by the voters, the ordinance spells out the park board's duties and responsibilities. It will become part of the City Code, if approved.

Mayor Merrill D. Hall today announced appointment of three men to comprise the new City Park Commission authorized in an initiative ordinance approved by voters at the general election Nov. 3. They are:

John H. Parsons of Curry St., vice president of Parsons Coal Co., Inc., and first vice president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Leaders Continue Talks In Washington

Johnson, Wilson Discuss NATO A-Force And Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Prime Minister Harold Wilson continue their talks today with two main subjects expected on the agenda: the nuclear future of the Atlantic Alliance and the situation in Southeast Asia.

Wilson began to spell out his ideas on how to organize a nuclear weapons force within the North Atlantic Treaty Organization at a mid-afternoon session with Johnson Monday, their second of the day. The prime minister will conclude his presentation today and then, presumably, Johnson will present a defense of the multilateral force as conceived by the United States.

Wilson is cool to the idea. Instead, the Labor government is understood to propose the formation of a new NATO nuclear command, to include Britain's nuclear bombers and submarines and all or most of the nuclear tactical weapons already in Europe.

The U.S.-suggested nuclear fleet, drastically reduced from the proposed 25 ships with 200 Polaris missiles, also would be part of the new command.

The two leaders will seek no decisions on this delicate and complex issue, observers on both sides cautioned Monday night. The word that no blueprint will emerge from the two-day conference was stressed repeatedly, with American and British officials using the same word.

What should be achieved in the talks is a mutual understanding.

Face Task Of Solving Differences

Committee Picked; House Turns Down Senate's Proposals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee undertook the task today of hammering out differences on congressional redistricting, biggest hurdle facing the special legislative session.

The committee was named by Republican leaders Monday night after the House soundly rejected Senate amendments which made the legislation virtually unrecognizable from the version passed earlier by the House.

One Democrat and eight Republican voted to concur with Senate amendments while 99 House members dissented.

Named to the joint conference committee from the Senate were Sens. Theodore M. Gray, R-Miami, chairman of the Senate State Government Committee which drafted the upper chamber's version; Robert E. Stockdale, R-Portage, and Charles J. Carney, D-Mahoning.

The House conferees named by Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, are Reps. Charles F. Kurfess, R-Wood, chairman of the House Elections and Federal Relations Committee which drew up the House plan; F. K. Cassel, R-Wyandot, and Anthony O. Calabrese Jr., D-Cuyahoga.

Senate majority leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, expressed the hope committee members would be able to resolve differences "in a few days", clearing the way for adjournment of the special session now in its fifth week.

The lone House Democrat favoring the Senate redistricting plan was Rep. John E. Wilson, D-Clermont. Republicans voting to concur were Reps. Herman Ankeney of Greene County; Harry L. Armstrong, Logan; Robert C. Carpenter, Seneca; Margaret Dennison, Trumbull; Roy J. Gilliland, Jackson; George A. Meinhardt, Meigs; Barry Levey, Butler, and Luther P. Mitchell, Marion.

In other business Monday night, the House passed and sent to the Senate a bill that would abolish the State Pardon and Parole Commission and replace it with an Adult Parole Authority.

2nd Property Offered For Auto Parking

W. Leland Thompson of Park Blvd. submitted a written proposal to Council Monday night offering to sell a second plot of E. 3rd St. property for conversion to an off-street municipal parking lot.

Quoting a price of $10,000, Thompson offered to sell the city a 30-x-130-foot tract which adjoins the former Orthodox Jewish Synagogue, also 30-x-130. He offered to sell the former synagogue property to the city in August for $8,500 outright or lease it for five years at $65 monthly, with an option to buy.

The property offered last night is occupied by two frame homes. Thompson explained in his letter he acquired it from George and Lucille Deane. The plot is immediately to the east of the synagogue property, which would make up

Burch Eyes National Unit On His Case

To Present Views On Leadership And Republican Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, beset by critics within his party, plans to take his case to the GOP National Committee with a letter spelling out his views on leadership and party issues.

Burch said in an interview Monday night that he would draft a detailed summary of his own views and send it to the 132 National Committee members who meet in Chicago Jan. 22 and 23 to decide, among other things, whether to retain Burch, chosen last July for his post by GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Grenier Quits GOP Post; To Back Burch

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — John Grenier, a top strategist in the Republican presidential campaign, says he is going to work to keep Dean Burch as chairman of the national party although he is leaving his own post.

The young Birmingham attorney, credited with delivering 271 votes to Sen. Barry Goldwater at the GOP convention, reluctantly submitted his resignation Monday as executive director of the Republican National Committee. It was accepted.

Inquiry Resumed Lobbyist Called In Baker Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate probe of Bobby Baker's financial dealings and his role in an alleged political payoff appeared headed today for a climactic decision on its future.

The Senate Rules Committee, resuming the inquiry after a weekend recess, called a Washington lobbyist friend of Baker for questioning about a $5,000 payment from a California bank.

The committee planned to ask lobbyist Wayne Bromley what he did for the Redwood National Bank of San Rafael, Calif., to earn the money and whether Baker received any of it.

Protests Congo, Malaysia Policies

Red-Inspired Mob Storms U.S. Library In East Java

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) —

A mob protesting America's policies toward the Congo and Malaysia stormed the U.S. Information Service library in the East Java capital of Surabaya Monday night, burning books, furniture, a mobile unit and a car.

It was the second U.S. library attacked by Indonesian demonstrators in four days. A mob stoned and sacked the American cultural center in Jakarta and its library last Friday, destroying about a fourth of the library's 15,000 books.

The Communist-led demonstrators are protesting America's participation with Belgium in the rescue of white hostages from Congolese rebels and U.S. support of Malaysia, which Indonesian President Sukarno has threatened to crush.

USIS Director Paul Neilson told a news conference a mob of about 1,000 banner-waving demonstrators smashed windows to enter the Surabaya library, which had been closed and locked in anticipation of trouble.

The mob hauled down the American flag and raised the Indonesian flag, wrecked the interior of the library, then threw furniture and books outside and built a bonfire with them.

The director of the library, James McHale, informed Neilson about a fourth of the library's 16,000 books were destroyed.

No American staff members were in the building, and Indonesian employees in the building were not hurt.

Neilson said Allan McLean, American consul at Surabaya, reported the "lightning raid" lasted half an hour.

An embassy spokesman said seven policemen were on duty in front of the library but could not cope with the mob. He said reinforcements arrived after the demonstrators had wrecked the library and were about to leave.

McLean tried to contact the Surabaya authorities but no one was available to see him, Neilson said.

American Ambassador Howard P. Jones is protesting the Surabaya attack to officials in Jakarta. The embassy has not yet received an answer to its note protesting the attack on the Jakarta center.

Neilson and Jones planned to fly to Surabaya Wednesday to assess the damage.

Bill Approved For Tax Law Regulations

Council gave approval Monday to a 26-page resolution setting up the regulations under which the city income tax department will operate for continuation of the revenue measure, effective Jan. 1.

Nearly a half-hour was required to read the legislation, which is virtually unchanged from the regulations now in effect for the tax department.

The regulations, in effect, implement collection under the tax measure approved by Council at a special session Nov. 27.

In the only major change, the regulations remove the operation of the tax department from the office of Treasurer Bert A. Dawson and shift it to Auditor Lawrence Zollinger.

As provided in the ordinance approved previously, the tax rate will remain unchanged at eight-tenths of one per cent — equivalent to 80 cents on each $100 of earnings or income.

The present tax ordinance will expire Dec. 31 and the new legislation will go into effect the following day.

The resolution contains an emergency clause, which means it will go into effect as soon as it is signed by Mayor Merrill D. Hall.

The vote on suspension of rules was 6-1, with Councilman Floyd Murray dissenting. The legislation was supported by the

All 4 Crewmen Killed In Jet Bomber Crash

NEWINGTON, N.H. (AP) — A B47 jet bomber crashed and burned early today just after takeoff from Pease Air Force Base, killing all four crew members. The bodies were recovered.

The plane came down in snow-covered woods about a quarter of a mile from a runway near this community just outside Portsmouth on New Hampshire's Atlantic coast.

Identities of the victims were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The plane was attached to the 351st Bomb Squadron of the 100th Bomb Wing.

School Tract Is Optioned

Investment firms involved in the purchase of the bond issue suggested the board use the premium plus $433 to invest in their securities.

Miss Liebschner and Blair expressed doubt about the legality of the procedure, pointing out the state law provides the premium and accrued interest be deposited in the bond retirement fund.

They said it is their understanding that funds in the bond retirement account cannot be invested.

The board also adopted a resolution establishing a "safe-keeping" account in the National City Bank of Cleveland for the securities.

A RESOLUTION approving the school tax rates next year also was approved after the County Budget Commission at Lisbon forwarded the rates.

The rates will include 4.2 mills inside and 14.9 mills outside the 10-mill limitation for the general fund, 5.9 mills for bond retirement and nine-tenths of a mill for the repair and maintenance account, Miss Liebschner reported. That is a total of 25.9 mills compared to 23.2 mills on the 1963 duplicate.

The 5.9 mills for bond retirement includes 5.4 mills for bonds and half of a mill to repay the $990,958 state loan.

That is an increase of 2.7 mills over the 3.2 mills the board received this year for bond retirement.

The millage for the bond retirement is expected to produce over $274,000 with $271,825 needed, Miss Liebschner said, including $120,000 to pay the principal and $37,750 for interest on the old bond issue and $114,825 to meet the interest on the new issue.

COUNTY Auditor Kenneth Bell said in mid-November the new tax rate would not include the millage to retire any of the new bond issue since no payments on the principal will be paid until 1966.

Bell estimated the millage needed to meet the principal payments might run as much as 3 to 3.5 mills more. The entire increase to retire the bonds and meet the interest payments will be on the 1965 tax duplicate payable in 1966, the auditor said.

Dennis Smith, deputy city Civil Defense director, turned over to the board a CD pamphlet with drawings showing how fallout shelters have been incorporated into new schools.

SMITH SAID the shelter could be used in any emergency where housing would be required for a large number. It would be stocked with supplies by the federal government.

Beatty later told the board he would consult with state officials and also investigate to determine whether federal money would be available.

Samuel W. Brown commented the board should know where the money is coming from. "It should not come out of our funds from the bond issue," he declared.

McConville named John R. Woerner, a board member, as chairman of a publicity committee to keep school district residents advised of the progress on the building program.

The names of other committee members will be announced after they have been contacted, McConville said.

Like onion with your hamburgers? If you don't feel like peeling and chopping fresh onion, add a little of the dehydrated chopped onion to the meat.

who does not vote for the levy is foolish."

The board authorized a letter be sent to the Committee on Safety and Education, urging it to endorse the proposed levy.

The letter commends the group for its efforts on behalf of the safety of the students, and urges it to support the board's efforts in obtaining the levy — "Only by getting our children off the highways will complete safety be restored."

In other business, Mrs. Janet Gontor's resignation as head cook at the Elkton School was received, and Mrs. Jane Harrold was appointed her replacement.

A burglary insurance policy for the schools was renewed with the William McNutt agency of East Liverpool. Use of the Public School gym for the annual science fair March 5-7 was granted the Science Department.

William Smith, board member, was appointed acting clerk in place of Harry Greenwood, who is convalescing from an illness. Greenwood, who returned Sunday from Youngstown North Side Hospital, is slated to resume part of his duties next Monday.

Absent were members Arnold Green and Lee Myers.

Glenmoor Electors To Vote In West Poll

The County Election Board today assigned all Glenmoor precinct electors in the Beaver Local School District to vote in the West Precinct of St. Clair Township at the school district's special election on Jan. 5.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said there will be no inconvenience since both the Glenmoor and West precincts vote at the Glenmoor fire station.

Only four in the Glenmoor precinct voted on the Beaver Local levy last November, he continued, pointing out most residents of the Glenmoor precinct are qualified electors in the East Liverpool School District.

With only 16 precincts operating instead of 17, O'Hanlon estimated it will save the Beaver Local school board approximately $150 in expenses. The school board must pay the entire cost of the election with the exception of poll books.

O'Hanlon emphasized, however, the election board will make no other assignments of electors for the special election.

$35,000 Damage Set After Riverboat Fire

ALIQUIPPA — The "Cherokee," a towboat owned by the Seneca Towing Co. of Cleveland, caught fire Monday on the Ohio River and received damages estimated between $35,000 and $40,000.

The fire apparently broke out in the engine room while the craft was in the vicinity of the Aliquippa works of Jones & Laughlin Steel Co.

The boat drifted downstream about a mile after the crew escaped safely in a small boat. Out of control on the river, the towboat was headed off by a Coast Guard craft and shoved to the east shore between Conway and Freedom where volunteer firemen extinguished the blaze. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Cold Will Ease With Occasional Light Snow

Temperatures were to begin easing today but with more light snow likely tonight, and Wednesday will still be milder. Today's high may exceed 34.

The Ohio weatherman said there will be "intervals" of light snow tonight with a low temperature range of 24 to 28 degrees. The downtown had 29 at 6 a. m. today as light snow fell for an accumulation of hardly half an inch.

Roads were slippery in some places, especially on Route 30 west of Lisbon, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

years, and Parsons, three years. When the new commission holds its organization meeting and elects a president, he automatically will become a member of the City Planning Commission. The creation of the new park unit will mean expansion of the Planning Commission from five members to seven.

Addition of the Park Commission's president will give the planning unit six members. The seventh will be appointed by the mayor.

In announcing the creation of the new board, the mayor emphasized that it will not mean dissolution of the Board of Thompson Park Commissioners, which will continue in its role of supervising the park.

Jaycees circulated petitions to put the question on the ballot, as state law says such a park commission can be created only by a vote of the people.

The mayor pointed out the new commission's duties and powers are outlined in Revised Code Section 755.03. The commission will supervise municipal park and recreation areas other than Thompson Park, assuming a responsibility that formerly fell mainly on the safety-service director's office, he said.

The Revised Code section to which the mayor referred says the commission will elect a president and a vice president to act in the president's absence. The meetings must be public and a majority vote of the three members will decide all questions, the code stipulates.

The mayor indicated he will name the seventh Planning Commission member after the Park Commission has held its organization meeting.

Scholar Drive Slated In Beaver Local Area

The "Dollars for Scholars" canvass in Beaver Local School District will be held next week by three Beaver Local High School groups, Ted Taylor and Mrs. Janet Cairns, co-chairmen, announced.

The house-to-house campaign will be conducted by the Key Club headed by Mike Fisher, the Student Council with Marie Tychnonievich as president, and the Y-Teens headed by Theresa Apple.

An overall goal of $2,700 has been set for Beaver Local, including business and industrial contributions. In 1963 the district obtained $1,900.

Driver Fined For Speeding

Herbert F. Hughes Jr., 21, of 1430 Globe St. was fined $15 and costs today by Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin when he pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road."

Hughes was cited Saturday at 1:25 a. m., the patrol reported. The acting judge imposed a fine of $25 and costs on Samuel Shird, 24, of East St. Louis, Ill., who pleaded guilty to a charge of operating an auto without a driver's license. Shird was cited at 2:12 a. m. today on Harvey Ave. by Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr., officers said.

The patrolman told the court he discovered Shird lacked a driver's license when he halted the car to advise the driver one of his tail lights was broken. He said the car is registered in the name of a man who resides at Waterford Park Race Track.

John M. Watson, 37, of the Y. & O. Rd. forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of failure to halt for a red blinker signal at Smith St. and Dresden Ave. He was cited Monday at 9:55 a. m. by Patrolman William A. Devon, police said.

Parking Lot

a plot with a total size of 60-x-130 feet, he explained.

Selling the residential property for $10,000 would represent a loss to Thompson of $1,700, he said in his letter. But he said he is willing to take the loss because of "my very great interest in this matter" of additional parking facilities.

He said his letter constitutes an option to the city on the residential property extending to May 1, 1965. He asked that his proposition not interfere with Council's consideration of purchase of property on W. 5th St. near Jackson St., also for use as a parking site.

Thompson's letter was received and filed without comment.

The W. 5th St. property deal also is in abeyance. The land was offered to the city officially several months ago by Roy Wilson, trust officer of the First National Bank, as executor of the estate of the late Miss Hazel Laughlin.

Not 50, Not 30, May Be None

First phase of bargaining in the "Kennedy Round" negotiations for worldwide tariff cuts opens in Geneva on Wednesday.

Negotiations have been in preparatory stages for 18 months. The general objective is to expand trade among the 64 member nations of GATT, General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. The late President Kennedy, for whom the discussions are named because he sponsored the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, wanted almost all tariffs cut by 50 per cent.

Talk now is that the best that can be expected is a general cut of 30 per cent. And it may take another 18 months—until the middle of 1966—to reach agreement on that.

To date, the world's major trading nations have been preoccupied with drawing up lists of industrial goods they wish excepted from tariff-cutting.

Only after the exceptions lists have been pared will negotiations proceed on general tariff-cutting. Assuming the levies finally are slashed, a new round of talks may be required to handle non-tariff obstacles to the free flow of trade. These include such obstacles as the U.S. "buy American" policy, and discriminatory taxes and customs requirements in all parts of the world.

Some negotiating nations seem also to be reneging on earlier promises to hold their exceptions lists to a bare minimum. The Common Market, for example, wants to exclude about 20 per cent of its industrial imports (including such items as machine tools, electrical equipment, trucks and buses). This contrasts unfavorably with the U.S. list, which is said to total only 8 per cent of dutiable imports. Scandinavian nations put all the others to shame by offering to waive tariffs on all industrial imports if other nations reciprocate.

It is a wonder that there still seems a reasonable outlook for any negotiations at all.

$3,000 Boost For Ohio Assembly?

A salary boost from $5,000 to $8,000 a year, as proposed for members of the Ohio General Assembly, is vastly more than a cost-of-living increase.

This kind of boost is given for extra effort and longer hours. Even though it may be argued that it represents deferred raises withheld in deference to oish views of salary boosting by voters, from $5,000 to $8,000 is a hefty increase—60 percent in one jump.

If the rest of us were told a 60 per cent hike in our pay was being considered, one of two things would have to be true:

Either we would have had to become 60 per cent more valuable overnight, or the boss would have had to lose his sense of proportion.

The boss in this case is the taxpaying public—the Ohioans who pay the legislators' salaries. And Ohioans have not lost their sense of proportion.

If members of the General Assembly are worth $3,000 more, it's because they are doing something more valuable than they were doing before.

Actually, they are more valuable. Legislative duties are more onerous than they used to be. More demands are made on their time. More demands are made on their intelligence.

If they would take the necessary steps to approve a constitutional amendment to switch from biennial sessions to annual sessions, Ohioans could go for the proposed 60 per cent increase.

Fact is, the General Assembly already is having annual sessions now, in effect—the regular biennial session plus special sessions in the off years.

Educated Men And Women

The 1964-1965 academic year marks the all-time high for college enrollment.

Full-time and part-time college students have reached a staggering total of 4,118,735. The source of the information is the annual survey of the University of Cincinnati registrar for an educational publication.

Women students are catching up to men students in numbers—1,068,596 women going to school full time this year and 1,724,732 men.

Full-time students are becoming more numerous—a 10.1 per cent increase over last year. Agriculture students are increasing. Theological students are decreasing.

Largest of all education "factories" is the California state college setup, with 167,636 full-time and part-time students.

Capt. Donlon's Heroism

President Johnson clearly used the presentation of the Medal of Honor to Capt. Roger H. C. Donlon to put his thoughts about South Viet Nam on the record.

Capt. Donlon had acted heroically in his role as a military adviser. To him, the war to keep South Viet Nam from being over-run by Communist-supplied and Communist-motivated North Viet Nam was as worth fighting and risking his life for as any war in which the United States had been involved as a combatant, instead of an adviser.

To men like Capt. Donlon there are no distinctions between wars. They go where military duty calls. They do what military duty demands. In South Viet Nam, duty demands the role of advisers to the South Vietnamese.

Al Was Right

Millions of happily married husbands sighed contentedly and wished Albert H. Zabala of Los Angeles the best of everything when he turned down 15 conditions for going back to live with his estranged wife.

The conditions ranged from not drinking to not lending money. They included such dillies as handing over his pay check and when he should get his hair cut.

In toto, they made it plain that Albert must have been a handful for his little woman. But they also made it plain that his little woman had big ideas about how to run a marriage.

Happily married husbands all know there is only one plan that will work year in and year out—mutual understanding. If it's impossible to attain, the marriage is a flop. Humpty-Dumpty has fallen off the wall and can't be put together again.

A few days ago, Sir Winston Churchill and his lovely Clementine were in the news, in connection with Sir Winston's 90th birthday. He has been as cantankerous a husband as ever spilled cigar ashes on a chair. But he and Clementine understood each other. She let him run the British navy, the British empire and whatever else he wanted to run while she ran the house. He married Clementine, as he once said, and "lived happily ever after."

A wife should never let her husband think he is anything less than the greatest guy who ever gooped up a situation. A husband should never let his wife think he views her as anything but the most divine creature who ever burned a bean.

All restraints placed by either partner on the other should be laid on as gently as blankets on a sleeping baby lest the impression be given that somebody is being trussed up for a forthcoming execution, which will bring on a flurry of survival tactics.

All decisions should be turn-about-and-fair-play. Experience should be allowed to indicate areas of competence. Thus, a man should be allowed to decide foreign policy and what to do about Supreme Court decisions, if that is his forte, while a woman might well be content to choose the color of the new car and whether or not to put her name ahead of her husband's on Christmas cards.

A man should laugh heartily at all the jokes his wife hears at the hair dresser's and never let on that they are a little rough for his taste. And a woman should applaud her husband's triumphs over the adversities and perversities of his job, never revealing they are child's play compared with what she puts up with on her job.

Only in this way can mutual understanding be nurtured and preserved.

Imagine a woman who would set down 15 hard-and-fast behavior rules for a man. Albert H. Zabala did right to turn her down. On the other hand, reading between the lines she did right to make sure he couldn't do anything else.

Those two were never going to hit it off anyway. They were floundering in mutual misunderstandings.

A Word To The Wise

Terrorism Grips Chicago District

By Victor Riesel

It sounded much like Saigon, but it was in suburban Proviso township, Illinois, that the black powder bomb was exploded the other Sunday evening.

Apparently terror by night can no more be halted in the center of this nation than it can in the heartland of Viet Nam.

The blast Victor Riesel which wrecked a restaurant by blowing out an entire wall and digging a 9-foot hole in the concrete floor was the 11th such attack by bomb or arson in the last four months, the 37th such assault on a restaurant since Jan. 1962 and the 80th bombing in less than two years in that area.

Though Chicago swarms with city, county, state and private investigators, not one of these crimes has been solved. The latest attack was on the new Homestead restaurant now being built by Ashley Rickets who testified before the McClellan labor rackets committee on July 16, 1958.

THE RICKETS people have been in the catering business for years yet the Homestead owner told authorities that he knew no reason for the attack on his property. Neither did the owners of the other restaurants, taverns and gin mills which have been blasted or burned.

Millions of dollars worth of such properties has been destroyed in the heart of Chicago and in its suburbs. Yet, as one authority put it, "It is unbelievable what has happened and that no one will talk or that a real suspect has not been found."

No local or federal authority will speculate on the record, but there's no doubt some of them believe this is the Chicago crime syndicate's warning to all comers not to believe that the tightest and toughest gangland of all is cracking or can be penetrated as other Cosa Nostra bands have been.

Apparently the mob which has been deep in the labor, supply, trucking, construction and entertainment rackets has succeeded in remaining impregnable. None of its top leaders has been jailed. None has disappeared, as did Joe "Bananas"

None has been assassinated, as was Albert (The Executioner) Anastasia.

THEY ARE KNOWN to sneer at the Eastern Cosa Nostra units, many of whose leaders are in prison or are under tough indictments.

Typical of the troubles besetting the Eastern "crowd" is the coming trial of the powerful trucking and garment shop operator, James Plumeri, alias Jimmy Doyle, uncle of Johnny Dio. The latter was named by Joe Valachi as a force in the Cosa Nostra who once was powerful in a series of unions.

Doyle is an ex-convict whose tax trial soon will make headlines in New York City. This is a federal indictment. Thus the U.S. government has been able to zero in on a man who refused to deny or affirm he was a member of the Mafia when he was questioned by the McClellan committee on July 3, 1958.

The Chicago syndicate has been able to stay out of the federal reach by sticking to its bombing and arson tactics. These are local and state violations.

However, the Justice Department's Organized Crime and Rackets section has a plan to counter the terror if it can get the new Congress to heed the desperation of the restaurateurs, small businessmen and legitimate unions.

IT CAN BE revealed that the department has prepared a bill which would amend the "travel law" passed on Sept. 13, 1961.

This law makes it a crime to cross state lines, or go beyond U.S. borders, or use any facilities of interstate and foreign commerce, including the mails, with intent to distribute the profits of unlawful activity.

It's also a federal crime, under this bill, to commit any violence to further unlawful activities across state lines or to facilitate, promote, manager or establish means for carrying on unlawful activity across state lines.

The Justice Department wants to add arson to the law, as well as the bombing of business which results in fires. Thus the use of materials originating in other states and resulting in acts of arson could be made a crime. Or the importation of thugs to set the fires would also fall under federal law.

This would enable the FBI to move in. If the bureau could trace the arsonists, it could crack the Chicago terrorists—and prove that terror by night can be wiped out of our land.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO—Mrs. Bernard Purinton was named president of the hospital twig, "The Holly," formed by the Helen Gould Literary Club.

Miss Eva Wedgewood was named president of the Ohio City Past Noble Grand Association.

Probate Judge H. W. Hammond addressed a meeting of the Township Line community group.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—Dann Clark, 160-pound senior guard, was elected captain of the 1945 Wellsville High School football team.

Vernon Dale Jordan and Virgil Allen Williams of East Liverpool were among 13 taken to Huntington, W. Va., for induction into the armed forces.

TEN YEARS AGO—Miss Janet Kortman of Lang St. and Miss Patricia Poole of River-view St. participated in a Christmas choral presentation of the music department of Ohio Northern University at Ada.

William P. Barker was installed as worshipful master of Wellsville Masonic Lodge 180.

Still Whirling

Whirling dervishes still spin out their mystic dance once a year in the ancient holy city of Konya, Turkey.

The dervishes gyrate at a dizzy pace with incredible endurance. An adept can whirl for 90 minutes without falling. He keeps his eyes fixed on his left thumbnail to avoid dizziness.

The ceremony in Konya, held annually on Dec. 17, commemorates the death of Jalal-ed-din Rumi, the 13th-century Persian poet who was the spiritual founder of the Mevlevi order of dancing dervishes, the National Geographic Society says.

Jalal-ed-din, who was entombed in Konya, pictured the universe as a sea and men as the waves of God. Legend says that when his poems were first chanted to his disciples, they were so profoundly affected that they started spinning.

The whirling was adopted as a zikr, a ritual intended to produce a state of ecstasy by withdrawing the mind from earthly things and bringing it into closer communion with the Divine.

The Mevlevi became one of the most highly respected dervish sects of the Moslem religion. The grand master of the Mevlevi was given the honor of girding new Turkish sultans with the sacred sword of Osman on their accession.

Many of today's Christmas carols are very old. "The First Nowell" originally was a medieval shepherd song. Another carol, "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" goes back to the 16th Century and "Joy to the World" was published in 1719.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By George Lichty

Objective For Republicans

By David Lawrence

Bitterness, Resentment Must Be Removed

The Republican governors adopted at their Denver conference what was intended to be a constructive statement about future policy for the Republican party. Naturally, it was worded in a political vocabulary of broad scope so as to give comfort to all factions and viewpoints but David Lawrence no sooner had the document been issued to the press than those who are still ranking over their defeat at the national convention last July began interpreting the statement in terms of friction instead of harmony, personality preferences instead of principles and political warfare instead of peace within the Republican party.

The governors' statement recommended that all the leaders in the Republican party on the state and national level should formulate "positive policies" with broad appeal to bring before all the American people, and then added:

"We need to appeal to all Americans. We need to become inclusive, rather than exclusive. We need to win elections and serve America as a great broad-based political party, far greater and far more effective than any narrow, exclusive political clique can ever hope to become."

Just who comprise the "exclusive political clique" can hardly be discerned from a reading of the complete text of the statement. Certainly it cannot be assumed that the 27 million who voted for Sen. Barry Goldwater are such a clique or that the national chairman, Dean Burch, and his lieutenants could be so characterized.

THE TRUTH is that whether Dean Burch stays or resigns isn't the real issue—unless his continuance or departure becomes symbolic of a philosophical division in the party.

The national chairman of a political party doesn't write platforms or pick out policies to support or oppose. He's an administrative officer of the party organization at its national headquarters. If removal of Mr. Burch would assure a victory for the Republicans next time, there isn't an ardent supporter of Sen. Goldwater—including Mr. Burch himself—who wouldn't be willing to make the sacrifice.

But there is something else festering in the Republican party situation. It's resentment over what is termed the political "treason" practiced by some of the same Republican governors who, although operating under the Republican label, refused to support and campaign for the party's nominees for the presidency and vice presidency.

Unity-GOP Lacks It

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Somebody mention unity?

There are about a dozen dictionary definitions of unity and this may explain the lack of it among Republicans who want their defeated party to unite.

Dean Burch says he wants unity although over the weekend some Republican governors said they want him fired as chairman of the Republican National Committee, a job he got through Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The governors in Denver issued a statement calling for party unity and, among other things, suggesting the national committee take a good look at its leadership.

Some of them said this wasn't aimed at Burch; some said it definitely was. Particularly Govs. George Romney of Michigan, Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania said they want Burch out.

Burch, whether or not he was a good chairman, was a terrible prophet for on election night, Nov. 3, with the roof falling in on Goldwater, he cheerfully predicted: "This picture is going to brighten considerably as the sun moves toward the West."

The final news from the West was even worse. Goldwater lost every Western state except his own Arizona.

But Monday, in a statement which some interpreted as a move to soothe his critics and keep his job, Burch called for unity.

"It now remains for all of us, governors, senators, congressmen, state chairmen, national committee members and workers, to demonstrate that the Republican party seeks strength through unity—not weakness and even impotence through needless quarreling and dissimilarity."

At the same time his right-

The realistic problem that faces the Republican party today is not how to remove Dean Burch as national chairman but how to remove the bitterness and resentment felt by millions of Republican voters who did support the ticket and are not ready to embrace the men who now want to take over the party leadership.

Many of these latter individuals are the very ones who deserted the party.

THE QUESTION is bigger and of more consequence than personalities. It's important not only to win back the Republican voters who repudiated the ticket but also at the same time to hold in line those who remained faithful to the Republican party nominees.

The opposition party, as a rule, does not try between elections to harmonize its own followers on programs prescribing how the country shall be run or by whom. Rather, the job is how to expose the weaknesses and the dangers of the policies of the incumbent party.

The Republican governors' statement in its reference to "positive policies" will be interpreted in some quarters to mean that the Republicans know better how to fulfill the administration's promise of a "great society" than does President Johnson. This is sometimes referred to in political parlance as "me-tooism."

Several of the same Republican governors who met at Denver—or their henchmen—gave the impression during the last campaign that it was all right for Republican voters to cast their ballots for President Johnson just so long as they split their ticket and voted for the Republican nominees for the Senate or House or for state offices. This isn't conducive to the rebuilding of widespread confidence and trust.

MANY REPUBLICANS of the moderate school have not yet discovered that it's a form of extremism in politics to punish the ones who remained loyal in a campaign and transfer the leadership of the party afterwards to those who strayed from its ranks.

On ideological issues, the Republican moderates can be credited with deep convictions, but they know in their hearts that many of their principles are closer to those of the Democratic party today than to the Republican doctrines of opposition to centralized government, fiscal extravagance and interferences with the free-enterprise system.

What the party out of power has to strive for is a way to represent and give emphasis to the protests of the people against the policies of the party in office and thereby to develop a consensus which can be reflected in a majority vote in the next election.

hand man—John Grenier, executive director of the national committee—quit with a statement which could hardly be considered a unifier or a pacifier.

Grenier, a fervent Goldwaterite, had been under criticism, too. His sudden departure, so soon after the governors' statement, could be considered an effort to cool off attacks on Burch and the committee.

But Grenier didn't seem obsessed by unity when he called in newsmen to announce he was leaving.

He said he will defend Burch and blamed a big part of Goldwater's defeat on "so-called Republicans": Romney, Rockefeller and Scranton. He said he was leaving to resume his law practice in Alabama.

The urge toward unity among Republicans is not new although it has taken strange turns. It began right after the election.

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president who campaigned for Goldwater, said the party needs unifiers, not dividers, and then attacked Rockefeller, who didn't campaign for Goldwater, as one of the principal dividers. He called Rockefeller, a "Spoilsport" and Rockefeller called him "peevish."

2 Re-Elected For Western Beaver Board

The Western Beaver County Board of Education Monday night returned Charles P. Henderson and Richard Herter as president and vice president, respectively, for new terms in the annual reorganization.

Henderson, principal at South Side High School at Hookstown, and Herter are both of Ohioville. Both were originally appointed to the board in 1959 and were named to their present offices in 1963.

The board will continue to meet the first Monday of each month at 8 p.m. in the High School at Industry.

The board authorized trips of several organizations. The Future Homemakers Club will attend a home economics demonstration at Utility Hall in Pittsburgh Dec. 16. The Commercial Club to visit the data center at the Mellon Bank in Pittsburgh on Jan. 12.

The Art Club to visit the Carnegie Institute Saturday and the General Science Class to visit the Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh the week of Dec. 15.

Chemistry classes and the Science Club will tour the Midland water and sewage disposal plants the week of Dec. 22.

The Industry Parent-Teacher Association was granted permission to conduct German classes at the Logan School Saturday afternoons from 12 to 3.

The board also set up a closed meeting for Dec. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the high school for the transportation committee, administrators, school bus contractors and dispatchers and bus drivers.

Cpl. Donald Mahoney of the Butler headquarters of the Pennsylvania State Police will speak on the various rules and regulations concerning the operations of school buses.

Henderson, who resided, reminded that registration for adult education classes at the high school will be held tonight and Wednesday afternoon and evening. The next meeting will be held Jan. 4.

Amphitheater

A group which proposes construction of an amphitheater in Thompson Park Monday night empowered Mayor Merrill D. Hall to select a three-member committee to suggest a name for the civic structure.

The action was taken at a meeting in the Municipal Court chamber at which Vincent Maola, school instrumental music supervisor, screened slides of amphitheaters already in use at New Philadelphia and Ashland.

The mayor said today he will act later on the appointment of the committee.

It was the second general meeting on the project. The first session was held Oct. 2, when various committees were named.

The group also asked its committee on location of the amphitheater to confer with the mayor and Robert F. Beatty, architect.

The committee is comprised of Judge Louis Tobin, Councilman James Cunningham, W. Leland Thompson, Joseph Walters, superintendent of the park, and Maola.

About 15 attended the meeting.

At the initial meeting, Judge Tobin announced that the Board of Thompson Park Commissioners already had given unanimous approval to plans for the project. Mayor Hall and Maola were named to co-ordinate the planning.

$3,500 Loss Set
In Auto Rig Fire

EAST PALESTINE — The cab of a car carrier rig was destroyed with a loss of $3,500 and a new car was scorched when the truck ignited Monday night while parked at The Ranch on Route 14 between Columbiana and Unity.

H. G. Lehman of Pontiac, Mich., suffered burns of a hand while attempting to get his belongings from the cab.

Unity firemen, who battled the blaze, blamed defective wiring. The rig, from Willow Run, Mich., carried a load of new cars, and a 1965 Corvair atop the cab was scorched, causing about $100 damage, firemen said.

The rig was parked at The Ranch, a tavern and bowling alley, when the blaze began about 6:35 p. m.

Stanton's Tax
Rates Cleared

HAMMONDSVILLE — The 1965 tax rates, for a total of 12.65 mills, were approved by the Stanton Local Board of Education Monday night.

This is a reduction of two-tenths a mill from the current year. The decrease is because of the lowering interest rates on the present bond issue.

The rate includes 10 mills for current operating expenses and 2.65 for bond retirement.

Supt. C. P. Henderson gave a report on the Ohio School Board Association meeting at Columbus. A discussion was held on the school districts' reorganization proposed by the State Board of Education.

The Christmas vacation will begin Dec. 18. Various classes will have parties in the afternoon and a Christmas assembly will be held. Classes will resume Jan. 4.

Members of the faculty will hold their annual Christmas social Dec. 17 at the high school cafeteria. Board members will be guests.

The next board meeting will be held Jan. 4.

Problems Due Airing

School Janitors,
Board To Confer

Airing several problems with a delegation of nine custodians, the Board of Education agreed Monday night to set aside a meeting early next year to thoroughly discuss the custodial problems.

The meeting probably will be held Jan. 6 when the board will reorganize for the year, board members said.

Harold West served as chief spokesman for the custodians who are members of the Ohio Association of Public School Employees. The officers of the city chapter did not attend.

WEST ASKED what action had been taken on a request from the OAPSE attorney for a meeting with the board and City Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper to thresh out a solution to the 40-hour work week.

The spokesman said the custodians still feel the law enacted in 1963 applies to them.

Supt. Paul H. Blair replied a meeting was planned but he was advised only two hours before it was to be held that the OAPSE counsel could not attend.

The superintendent said he had written to the attorney inquiring about a new date but has not received an answer.

Reviewing the situation for John R. Woomer, Samuel W. Brown and Richard Smith, who became members of the board this year, Blair said the board is acting on the advice of the solicitor who ruled a year ago the board was operating within the law and had a policy establishing a 44-hour work week.

ANY WORK over the 44 hours would be paid at the overtime rate of $2 for the first hour and $1.85 for all other hours.

Blair said he met with the custodians, read the solicitor's opinion and understood the men would abide by the decision.

Earlier this year the board eliminated Saturday morning work as a courtesy to the custodians, the superintendent reminded the board, but said the policy should not be considered a means of abiding by the 40-hour law.

West said the ruling on overtime for work over 44 hours apparently was a misunderstanding.

The spokesman said he was "certain" the elementary custodians would have turned in overtime if they had been aware it was to be paid.

OTHER custodians agreed with West that the first knowledge they had was yesterday morning when they were advised by George Shuffert, superintendent of buildings and grounds, that they were to turn in their time beyond 44 hours.

A discussion also arose on whether the overtime pay could be collected for past work, but Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk-treasurer, said the board is not permitted to make retroactive payments.

She pointed out the board paid custodians for extra work in the severe cold of 1962-63 but said the custodians would have been required to repay the money if a ruling hadn't been obtained from the Bureau of Supervision of Public Offices when a state examiner checked the books.

Smith suggested the policy be reviewed and Woomer agreed, explaining, "On the surface, it doesn't sound right."

MRS. NESSIE Dunlop, vice president, then suggested the meeting when more time could be allowed to discuss custodial problems.

The board also adopted a policy establishing a salary schedule for a substitute fireman at Westgate School only.

Subject to revision later, the policy provides the licensed substitute will receive $2.65 hourly and overtime at the rate of $3 for the first hour and $2.50 per hour after that.

On holidays and Sundays, the fireman will be guaranteed $6 for the first two hours with $2.75 for each additional hour.

Talks

standing on how to shape the West's nuclear defense, before the issue is taken up with the Allies in NATO, the officials said.

The Johnson-Wilson talks are going far beyond the NATO problem. It was emphasized after the first day. The aim is to formulate a joint philosophy on the role in the world of the only two Western powers with worldwide responsibilities.

While the mixed-manned nuclear missile fleet is at the heart of the NATO problem, it is but one factor, the British are saying. American observers are hopeful that this means Wilson would not rigidly oppose the fleet concept, if it can be submerged in a broader Atlantic force.

The prime minister is understood to be ready to talk today again about his country's growing tasks east of the Suez, in the Middle East and in Malaysia, while Johnson is expected to remind his guest of the need to apply the same to South Vietnam.

Monday night Johnson gave a dinner at the White House for Wilson.

New Legislation Cited

State Orders Candidate
Petitions Be Destroyed

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown today ordered the Columbiana County Election Board and other boards throughout the state to destroy all forms for declarations of candidates and nominating petitions which were prescribed prior to Oct. 19.

Brown advised the board the destruction of the forms for state, district, county, municipal, village, township and school district elections was necessitated by enactment of new legislation by the General Assembly changing the prescribed forms.

"Unfortunately, the destruction order came after a few 'early birds' obtained declarations of candidacies for the May 4 primaries in East Liverpool and other areas," Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the county board, said.

"These declarations now are obsolete and invalid and will not be accepted for ballot places," O'Hanlon emphasized. The secretary of state has ruled the forms are not legally acceptable even though they may have the required number of signatures, he added.

"Some prospective candidates failed to introduce themselves to the board's staff and were issued the petitions now ruled as obsolete and we cannot contact them directly."

"Regardless, they must circulate the new forms if they plan to be party candidates at the May 4 primaries or independent candidates at the November general election," O'Hanlon warned.

He estimated the board will not receive its supply of the new forms for at least two weeks.

The board meanwhile mailed to Brown the required fees as well as certificates of election for the issuance of commissions to 10 of 11 county officials elected Nov. 3.

O'Hanlon said state law requires all officers of record except the state representative to obtain commissions signed by the governor.

The commissions will be mailed to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts, and will be available for the winners at his office in Lisbon.

One winner still has not filed the sworn statement of expenses as required by law and the certification of election cannot be issued until it is received, O'Hanlon explained.

The board acted so the secretary of state can obtain the governor's signature and return the commissions to the county before the office-holders begin their new terms, generally on Jan. 1.

Meanwhile, County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge reported he spent $630.26 in his successful re-election campaign.

Rush Down From 1963

Post Office Fears Heavy
Rush Of Late Yule Mail

Despite predictions of new mail records, a decrease in cancellations at the Post Office in the first three days of the month has caused Postmaster Samuel W. Brown some concern.

Brown said cancellations were down 5,000 from the total recorded in the first three days of December 1963.

"I am sure this will be made up, but it means we are going to get more mail concentrated in a shorter period," he declared.

Brown said the decrease can be attributed to the rainy weather last week, when most residents postponed trips to the Post Office to mail gifts and greeting cards until the weather was more suitable.

Predictions of new mail records are easy to make, the postmaster said, explaining the volume of mail has been increasing at a rate of three per cent a year for several years. The increase is reflected most around the holiday season.

More than 12 billion pieces of incoming and outgoing mail are expected to move through the system this month, with about 10 per cent moving in less than three weeks.

"The cooperation of the public is one reason postal employees can handle this huge mountain in such a short period," he said. "We'd be in a jam without the assistance of the public."

By shopping and mailing early, the public makes it possible for holiday mail to be delivered on time, he added.

"Imagine the turmoil if we got all the holiday mails in the week before Christmas. If we run into foul weather or mechanical problems, then we are up against it because of the concentrated period," Brown said.

Besides mailing early, the postmaster reiterated several other suggestions to help the 65 local employees to handle the mail.

The use of ZIP codes speeds processing of the mail because of a new transportation and distribution plan. It also helps clerks to identify receiving offices when addresses are hard to read.

"The faster the mail is processed the better chance it has to make connections with trucks, trains and planes," Brown commented.

He also urged parcels to be wrapped securely, packed tightly and the addresses of the recipient and sender be included in the inside of the package in case the outer wrapping is loosened.

Use of the ZIP number on parcels usually means a more direct routing and less handling, he added, explaining less handling drastically reduces the chances of damage.

World Population Hits
3,283,000,000 Total

WASHINGTON (AP) — The population of the world in mid-1964 was an estimated 3,283,000,000 and it is growing at the rate of about 65 million a year. In 1980 it is expected to hit 4.3 billion.

The figures were compiled primarily from United Nations estimates. They were released by the Population Reference Bureau to point out the long-range problems posed by the global population increase.

Sohio "split engine" test shows

How dirty your valves can get in only
7,000 miles

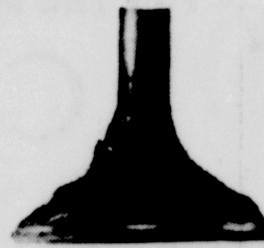

...and how The New Boron keeps valves cleaner!

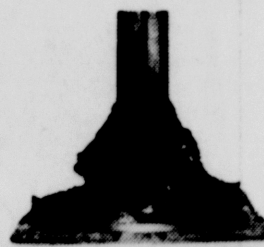

To show the effect of Sohio's exclusive valve cleaner, half the cylinders were run on The New Boron in this "split-engine" test. The other cylinders were run on a premium gasoline with no valve cleaner. All intake valves were brand new at the start of the test. After the equivalent of 7,000 miles of driving, the intake valves were removed, photographed and reinstalled without cleaning. After 14,000 miles, the valves were again removed and photographed.

COMPARE THESE VALVES FROM THE TEST

Ordinary premium gasoline can't prevent valve deposits. You need

with its exclusive valve cleaner

Every driver wants to keep his valves clean. Yet Sohio's special "split-engine" test shows that intake valves in today's engines can build up deposits in only 7,000 miles. That's why you need The New Boron. Its exclusive valve cleaner puts a coating on valve surfaces that actually prevents deposit build-up. You can see the big difference it makes in these unretouched photos. Keep your valves cleaner! Don't drive without The New Boron!

Remember the "split-engine" test when you buy gasoline. Fill up on The New Boron with its exclusive valve cleaner.

People In News

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Dorothy Malone, 36, divorced French actor Jacques Bergerac, 37, and was awarded custody of their two children Monday after a 12-day closed-door trial.

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King, prior to leaving Oslo to accept the Nobel Peace Prize, told a mass meeting Monday night that Britain and the United States are "bolstering up the South African tyranny" that promotes racial segregation.

The Negro civil rights leader said both governments must act decisively. "We must join in a nonviolent action to bring freedom and justice to South Africa by a massive movement for economic sanctions," he said.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Victor Mature has been accused in a $1,175,000 damage suit of falsely representing that he intended to work in a movie in order to get a free trip to Europe.

Producer Sidney Pink, who filed the suit in Los Angeles Monday, alleges Mature accepted a round-trip ticket with the understanding he was to report to Madrid last July 8. The complaint says that when Mature arrived in France, he went on to London. He finally was induced to show up in Madrid but demanded, the producer claimed, that a friend be hired as a double.

Pink said he met this and other demands — until it became apparent Mature had no intention of working.

Buzzard-Metz Ceremony Held In Wellsville Church

Miss Anna Marie Metz of Wellsville became the bride of Arnett Buzzard of East Liverpool at a 11 o'clock High Mass the morning of Nov. 28 in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Wellsville.

Fr. Gerald Curran conducted the ceremony and Anthony DiCello, organist, played nuptial music and sang.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metz, 317 Broadway, Wellsville, wore a white lace ballerina-length gown trimmed down the front with sequins. Her veil of illusion was draped on a crown of pearls. She carried white orchids on a white Bible, a gift of her godmother, Mrs. Margaret Micucci.

Mrs. Rose Tice, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She was attired in a blue brocade dress with wrap-around skirt and her veil and accessories matched. She carried a Colonial bouquet with blue streamers.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise faille dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Adaline Buzzard, wore a two-piece red suit. Their corsages were an orchid.

Richard Winters of East Liverpool was best man and his brother, Al Winters, was usher.

A reception was held at the Jaycee Hall with 110 being served a buffet lunch. Out-of-town guests were from East Liverpool, Cleveland and Beaver Falls. Following a honeymoon to Pittsburgh the couple is residing with the bridegroom's mother on Mulberry St. He is employed at the Homer Laughlin China Co.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Dec. 8, the 343rd day of 1964. There are 23 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1775, Colonial forces led by Gen. Richard Montgomery and Benedict Arnold opened a siege of Quebec. Montgomery was killed in the first assault on Dec. 31.

On this date: In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln issued his Proclamation of Amnesty and Reconstruction.

In 1944, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced that his forces had landed on the west coast of Leyte Island, splitting Japanese lines.

Ten years ago — The U.N. approved free elections for all Korea over Soviet objections.

Five years ago — A Colombian airliner with 46 persons aboard was lost on a flight from San Andres Island to Cartagena, Colombia.

One year ago — Eighty-two persons were killed in the crash of a Pan American Boeing 707 near Elkton, Md.

President Discloses Advice By First Lady

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told Monday night of some whispered advice he had received from the First Lady.

At a White House dinner honoring British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, Johnson said: "I had some very special advice, Mr. Prime Minister, just a few minutes before you arrived. My wife whispered in my ear as we were coming out to greet you this morning, she said, 'Dear, this is judgment day and be sure you use plenty of it.' " "I have tried to follow her advice."

On Busy Freeway, Too Driver, 10, Takes First Lesson—Solo—62 Miles

WESTMINSTER, Calif. (AP)—Whoever said experience is the best teacher had it all wrong—at least in young Stephen Dugmanies' case.

Stephen, 10, took his first driving lesson—solo—Monday. He drove to his aunt's home in Pacoima, Calif., 62 miles away, police said.

That, by itself, is a considerable accomplishment, as any veteran truck driver would admit. Stephen, however, took the joy ride during the peak traffic rush hour, navigating a long distance on the San Diego Freeway.

The freeway speed limit is 65 miles an hour. Stephen's speed was not determined.

Police learned of the trip from a neighbor, who reported at 8:15 a.m. he had seen the boy driving around the neighborhood.

Police contacted his mother, Mrs. Joseph Dugmanies, who said she didn't know what had gotten into the boy.

Two hours later, officers said, Stephen showed up at his aunt's home. Bernice Watts, after she recovered from the shock, called Westminster, then had her 17-year-old son drive Stephen home—to a severe greeting.

Stephen, who stands only 4 feet 9 inches, sits considerably less, and can barely peep out of the windshield of his parents' 1964 compact car, officers said.

Police said apparently no one paid any attention to the boy as he drove through the heavy traffic, but Southern California traffic is like that—everyone is intent on one thing, getting there, and fast.

Investigators said Stephen's mother was told to bring him to the station, probably for a lecture. They said Stephen had probably already encountered one lecture—one he's still smarting over.

Bill Provides $19,668 Fund For Year-End

In its annual year-end allocation of funds, Council approved an amended appropriation ordinance Monday night allocating $19,668 from income tax revenue for operation of various departments.

Council set up $9,668 from the tax revenue for the general fund and also appropriated two additional $5,000 items—one for operation of the street department and the other for the St. Clair Ave. improvement fund.

In the general fund, using part of the transferred money, Council provided: $100 for mayor's office incidentals; $361 for municipal Court stationery and $600 to help pay the city's share of employee hospital insurance.

In the police department, the ordinance provides: $500 for overtime pay; $275 for incidental expenses; $500 for gas and oil and $100 for uniforms. Allocations for the fire department are: Laundry, $100; fuel and light, $500; hydrants, $791, and uniforms, $50.

The measure also sets up $175 for incidental expenses in the "Meter Maid" office. In addition, it provides $1,214 for resurfacing roads in Thompson Park and $350 for wages in the park and $250 for incidental expenses in public buildings.

The same legislation provides for dozens of transfers within departments, shifting money allocated for one purpose for use for another purpose. The transfers affect principally the garbage, sewage and water funds.

Commenting on the fund measure and the fact that the money was provided by the income tax, Councilman Robert W. Sample said: "I think we are in better financial shape today than I have ever known the city to be."

Citizens Radio Band Club Plans Yule Party

Plans for the annual Christmas party Dec. 19 for members and guests were made at a meeting of the Penova Citizens Band Radio Club Sunday evening at the clubhouse at Hillcrest.

Sixty-two were served refreshments by Ronald Mayfield and Mrs. Ann Green.

Brooks Mayfield, president, said the results of the election of officers Saturday would be announced at the next meeting Dec. 20 at 7 p. m. The new officers will assume their duties the first meeting in January.

Lisbon District Driver Arrested After Wreck

John C. Hippely, 58, of Lisbon R. D. 4 was cited for driving while intoxicated after his station wagon rammed a utility pole on Route 172 near New Garden Monday night at 10:10.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Hippely was headed east when his 1959 station wagon went off the left side of the road.

Hippely suffered a laceration of the nose. His vehicle had moderate damage, officers said.

Major Actions Taken By U.S. Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are major actions taken Monday by the Supreme Court:

Agreed to hear arguments on an appeal contesting validity of Connecticut laws against use of contraceptives and barring the giving of medical advice about such use.

Granted a hearing to Billie Sol Estes on his complaint against live television coverage at his Texas trial on swindling charges. Estes was sentenced in a state court in Tyler to eight years imprisonment.

Struck down a Florida law making it a crime for a Negro and white not married to each other to habitually occupy the same room at night. In the same case, the court refused to rule on constitutionality of a Florida law prohibiting marriages between Negroes and whites.

Granted a hearing on the question of validity of a law permitting the postmaster general to destroy "Communist political propaganda" mailed from abroad.

Decided that union dues may be raised on a vote of convention delegates counted according to the number of members in each delegate's local, instead of a mere majority vote of delegates.

Board Advised Of Funds School District Finances Seen Same As Last Year

School district finances will show about the same balance at the end of this year as they did when the books were closed on 1963, Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk-treasurer, advised the Board of Education Monday night.

All bills except for this month have been paid and a fourth quarterly settlement of $195,885 has been received in state foundation funds. Payrolls still must be met this month, she added.

There is a balance of $279,353 in all school funds, including $215,117 in the general fund; $16,925 in bond retirement; $9,452, lunch room; $2,212, improvement; $397, night schools; $2,508, Title III funds, and $33,327, repair and maintenance.

Two accounts show small deficits. There is a deficit of $138 in the custodial training account and $448 in uniform supplies.

Miss Liebschner was authorized to make transfers from the general fund to close out accounts for the year.

The board approved tuition payments for two children attending the School for the Deaf in Youngstown, and a girl attending schools in another school district as a result of court action.

Six rentals were approved on the recommendations of Supt. Paul H. Blair. They were:

Westgate auditorium to the Lions Club on March 12 and 13 for the rehearsal and annual minstrel show at a fee of $20 plus custodial for the rehearsal and $50 plus custodial for the show.

Ted W. Burke, retiring president of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club, expressed his thanks to the board, administration and staff for co-operation the club received.

Former Market Head Promoted

Raymond E. Blowers, former manager of the A. & P. Supermarket here, has been appointed supervisor of the firm's stores in the East Liverpool and Beaver Valley areas, Ivan R. Wolf, vice president of the Pittsburgh unit, announced.

A 23-year veteran with A. & P., Blowers was manager of the Beaver Falls store prior to his appointment as the local manager.

In his new post, he will take over the territory formerly supervised by George Trusik. Besides the East Liverpool store, the territory includes stores in Midland, Ambridge, Sewickley, Bellevue, Beaver Falls, Aliquippa, Coraopolis, Conway, Beaver, Moon Township, Leetsdale and three stores in Pittsburgh.

Blowers resides with his wife, Margaret, and daughter, Patricia, at 313 Vine St.

County Draft Board Sends 6 For Induction

LISBON — Six men left this morning by bus from the Columbiana County Draft Board for induction in Cleveland. Inducted immediately, they were given a furlough until after Christmas, according to Mrs. Elaine Griffith, clerk of Board 16. Inducted were:

Frank D. McMichael Jr. of R. D. 2 and Thomas G. Wright Jr. of R. D. 5, Salem; Kenneth A. Miller of Columbiana R. D. 2; Jacob J. Marshalek of Lisbon R. D. 4, and Raymond C. Engelsiepen, R. D. 1, and Harold R. Bittner, East Palestine.

Board Advised Of Funds

Savage Ice Storm Hits In Northeast

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—New York's savage ice storm meant no school for delighted children, no heat for their parents' cold homes, no rest for weary work crews.

Today it also meant hopes that winds would not snap more power lines or topple more trees bowed under tons of ice in east-central New York and parts of Vermont and Massachusetts.

The ice accumulated during a weekend of freezing rain and snow. Effects of the storm and below-zero temperatures early this week have forced hundreds of families to live in emergency centers—such as the Lake Avenue Armory here.

The armory atmosphere is one of good spirits and helpfulness. Families share belongings and talents as they shared hardships in an ice storm that, at its peak, took electricity and heat from 75,000 homes and businesses in eastern upstate New York. About 4,000 homes in the Pittsfield, Mass., area also lost power.

Monday night, officials of the Niagara-Mohawk Power Corp. said the number of customers without electric power was down to 27,000—representing more than 50,000 persons.

More than 900 men, coming from power companies as far away as Philadelphia, are working 16-hour days to free an area of more than 1,000 square miles of downed power lines and to restore service.

There was no estimate of damages, except that they would be in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Vacant Buildings Lure Many Children

What is more interesting to children from 5 to 12 or 14 than a building under construction? They like to watch the huge machine digging out the foundation and the trucks coming in with sand, lumber and other building materials and unloading. After the foundation is laid, the children like to run across the tops of them, chasing one another. They like to watch the carpenters put up the timbers, lay the bricks for walls, nail on the sidings, put up the rafters and complete the roof.

After the workmen have gone home, the children like to climb and walk over the piles of sand, bricks or lumber, or wander through the partly constructed building and climb from story to story.

Once some rooms and halls are enclosed, they like to play hide-and-seek or games of chase. Sometimes a child is injured at such fun. Some children delight in picking up sawed-off pieces of lumber and carrying them home to make something out of them, even to build a tree house.

ONCE while I was discussing these matters at a forum of parents in a university town, the dean of the school of education joined in the discussion. He said: "See the wide range of interesting, rich, educational experiences these children are getting."

I replied: "Just as they might if they entered and explored an unlocked or unoccupied house; just as they might if they entered an unlocked car with a key in it, belonging to somebody else; just as they might if a skillful burglar showed them how to jimmy a lock, open a safe or rob a bank."

Then I asked: "When your child or mine explores about or inside a building under construction, without permission from its owners, he is trespassing. He is practicing bad citizenship. He is exercising the very attitudes and acts we have tried hard to teach him not to have and do. While he is having fun and learning skills and knowledge he is also learning to disregard the rights and possessions of other persons.

What will it profit a child to gain all such skills and wisdom and lose this precious moral value? What shall be given in exchange for it?"

A VACANT building is also an allurements to children, and the longer it has stood unoccupied the more alluring it is. Children often imagine it is haunted and they resolve to find out. Not only may they enter it and explore, but one of their parents may do so with them, without permission from anybody else to do so. Yet this building belongs to some person or group of persons.

As editor of a children's magazine, I'm amazed at the number of stories that are submitted to me built around such old, empty houses.

Don't you think we parents should bring up our children to have deep regard for the rights and possessions of others? If we do, we won't allow them to enter any unoccupied building or play about it or around or inside any building under construction.

We shall not unless we and they first have permission from the owner or owners. Even then, as a rule, we should go with these children to make sure of their physical and moral safety.

My bulletin, "Teaching Child Care of Property", may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

TV Manager Dies

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Brenton H. Kirk, 46, manager of television station KUTV, Salt Lake City, and veteran newspaper sales and promotion director, died Monday, apparently of a heart ailment. He at one time had worked for the Washington (D.C.) Post Co. and for Scripps-Howard Newspaper Corp. at Evansville, Ind.

Akron Man's Convicted In Bank Fraud

CLEVELAND (AP) — An Akron man has been convicted of defrauding the Dime Bank of Akron of $124,319 by an arrangement which he claimed was used to get money to support a revolution in Haiti.

A U. S. District Court jury convicted Andrew D. Adams, 50, Monday of acquiring the sum in a 20-month check kiting operation. Judge James C. Connell ordered Adams held pending a pre-sentence report from the court's probation office.

Adams faces up to 40 years in prison and $50,000 in fines. Neither Adams nor his attorney, Christopher T. Cherpas, would say whether the verdict would be appealed.

The nine men and three women on the jury took only an hour to find Adams guilty on each of the five counts in the indictment.

Government attorneys presented evidence that Adams had set up accounts in the Bowers branch of the Dime-Bank and in the Bank of Albion in Albion, Mich.

Witnesses testified that Adams cashed checks at the Akron bank and sent bundles of cash to Albion to cover them, after retaining some of it for himself.

Adams admitted on the stand that he had cashed all of the checks at the Dime Bank and had arranged to send the cash to Albion.

Government evidence was that the deposits began at $6,000 a day and continued almost daily for 20 months with the amounts rising to $62,000 at the close. The government attorneys said Adams used more than 5,000 checks for a total of $14 million in the operation.

Car Damaged Heavily In E. 6th St. Collision

A 1956 model four-door sedan was damaged heavily in a collision with a truck Monday at 2:40 p. m. on E. 6th St. at St. Clair Ave., officers reported. The mishap damaged both right doors and the right rear fender of the auto driven by Hamilton C. English, 77, of 506 Sugar St. There was no damage to a 1963 model truck driven by Thomas H. Vincent, 19, of Glenmoor and owned by Roy W. Cooper of Calcutta, officers said.

English was driving east on E. 6th and Vincent pulled from a parking place at the curb, police said. Vincent told Patrolman William A. Devon he looked before proceeding and did not see any oncoming traffic.

$7,999 Offer Seen Lowest For 2 Trucks

A Wellsville auto dealer submitted the apparent low bid when the Board of Control opened offers Monday afternoon for two trucks equipped with dump bodies, snow plows and ash spreaders to supplement the city's snow-removal equipment.

The board comprised of Mayor Merrill D. Hall and Safety Service Director Robert E. Vorey took the four bids under advisement.

Bob White Ford, Inc., offered 1965 Ford three-quarter ton trucks with 6-cylinder, 300 cubic inch displacement engines, a 7½-foot frame-mounted snow plow with electro-lift and a pull-type ash spreader for $3,999.66 each, or a total of $7,999.32.

The company said that an exception had been made on the rear axle but said it had been assured by Ford Motor Co. officials the 5,200-pound capacity axle would do the job for which the trucks are designed.

The wheels and tires also were changed from the city's specifications for better performance, it noted.

Wimmer Motor Sales offered 1965 GMC trucks with 6-cylinder, 305 cubic inch engines and equipped with the same plow and ash spreader for $4,120 each or $8,240.

Mike Turk, Inc., submitted a bid of $8,600 for 1965 Chevrolet trucks with 6-cylinder, 230-cubic inch engines and the identical snow plow and ash spreader.

It offered to supply 292 cubic inch engines at an additional $75 each. They list for $96.85, the firm's bid said.

O. S. Hill & Co. offered two one-ton International trucks with 8-cylinder engines and the same plow and ash spreader for $4,445 each.

The company offered 7.50-x-16-inch dual rear tires at an extra $125 and front wheel locking hubs for $70.

Council appropriated $10,000 from income tax revenue at its Nov. 16 meeting to cover the cost of the new street department vehicles.

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

Prince Chad and the turtle are on the way to Santa Land to the Music Festival. They are followed by a man with who is sworn to prevent the Prince from ever returning to his kingdom.

CHAPTER FOUR

"Oh, dear," cried the Prince to the one-eyed Snowman. "There must be something we can do to save you!"

"Nothing at all," said the Snowman sorrowfully. "It happens to my kind every year. Children make us when the snow comes, then forget us when the sun shines. In a little while we melt away and no one even remembers we once were here."

"I know what we could do," said the Prince. He turned to George who only now ambled his slow way up to them. "We could take him to Santa Land with us! There it is always cold and he would never melt away."

GEORGE tossed his head and tapped an impatient foot. "He can't walk!" he said shortly.

"But I can!" protested the one-eyed Snowman. "If I have some place to go to, I can walk. Usually snowmen have no place to go and that is why—"

"No, no," interrupted George. "You can't go with us. It simply makes too much of a crowd and all the commotion has already caused me seriously to neglect my singing."

"Was that you singing?" exclaimed the Snowman. "I heard you as you came down the road and I thought to myself I had never heard so noble a sound."

"Eh?" said George. "And is that why you were groaning?"

"Indeed, yes. I moaned to think that I would never hear such sound again."

"I see," said George, puffing up as far as he could inside his shell. "It appears that you have a very good ear for music! Well, I suppose it will not matter too much if you come along with the Prince and me. Only, let's hurry along, for goodness' sake — and no more interruptions, please!"

As George sauntered along he exercised his remarkable voice.

THE PRINCE gave the one-eyed Snowman a push to get him started. Then he held the fellow's arm to steady him until he got used to moving his big, clumsy legs and was able to stagger along under his own power.

Meanwhile, George plodded along in his slow turtle way. Taking everything into consideration, it appeared to the Prince that it was going to take a very long time to get to where they were going. It appeared that way, too, to Womp, the man with, who trailed the Prince and was getting very impatient to get his job over with.

But George was in excellent spirits. It was a fine, clear day — the very best kind of day for George's voice — and as he sauntered along he freely exercised his remarkable vocal chords.

He sang through two complete operas, taking all parts, for his voice could cover all ranges from soprano to basso profundo. He was about to begin a third opera when the Prince began to be truly worried and dared to interrupt.

"How much farther to Santa Land?"

"About 40,000 miles roughly, I should say," replied George, opening his eyes for the first time since the walk began.

"Forty thousand miles! We can never walk that far in three days!"

"I don't intend to walk, your Majesty," retorted George. "We will go by Hoppy Hopeand Pray's underground railway, the entrance to which is not far away. In fact, if I have counted my steps correctly it should be around the next bend in the road."

Sure enough, when they rounded the next bend they came upon a hollowed-out oak tree. On it was a sign saying:

"Hoppy Hopeand Pray's Underground Railway."

"What a strange name!" said the Prince.

"Not at all," replied George. "You just hop on and hope and pray you get there!"

Laird Raps Yule Stamps

WASHINGTON ZAP) Rep. Melvin R. Laird has criticized the 1964 Yuletide postal stamp and urged issuance of Christmas stamps with a religious theme such as a Nativity scene — "not the commercialized symbol of a Christmas tree or Santa Claus."

In a letter to Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, the Wisconsin Republican said many controversial issues have arisen in recent years over the principle of separation of church and state.

"There is one issue, however, over which there should be no controversy because it in no way concerns the separation of church and state," Laird wrote. "That issue is the annual issuance of Christmas stamps by the Post Office Department."

"Again this year the Post Office has issued a highly commercialized stamp which purports to convey the 'spirit' of Christmas but which in no way symbolizes the true meaning of Christmas."

He has urged for years, Laird said, and in the past has introduced legislation calling on the Post Office Department to use the Nativity scene on its annual Christmas stamp.

The Post Office Department's special stamp committee, Laird said, turned down the Nativity scene for a Christmas stamp on the basis that it would commemorate a religious holiday.

"This argument has no relevance to this issue," he wrote. "Christmas is celebrated each year to honor the birthday of Jesus Christ. Even those who do not acknowledge Him as the Son of God recognize that He was a great figure in history."

East Palestine Sisters Plan Double Wedding

EAST PALESTINE — Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Frank Reisinger, 306 E. Clark St., have announced the double engagement and wedding of their daughters, Miss Nancy Kay Reisinger, and Miss Alice Reisinger.

Nancy Kay is engaged to George Lee Welsh, son of Mrs. Bernice Welsh of W. Main St. and George O. Welsh of Salt Lake City, Utah. Alice is engaged to Dale S. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Hughes, 137 4th St.

The double wedding will be held Saturday night at 7 o'clock at the Emmanuel Evangelist United Brethren Church. The Rev. Guy E. Smith will officiate.

Open church will be observed as no invitations have been issued. The reception will follow at the New Waterford Fish and Game Club.

In Finland, where evergreen is a sign of mourning, straw is used for Christmas decorations.

Received Kidney Transplants

Girl Who Made Medical History Now 'Normal'

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A year ago Toni Beugen was making medical history.

Today she does a cartwheel if she feels like it and zips off to suburban St. Louis Park High School.

But in doing that she's still making medical history.

Toni, 17, was the subject of a pioneering operation at University of Minnesota hospitals in which she received two kidneys, transplanted to her body from a child who had died.

It was a breakthrough for doctors who had long wondered how to overcome the human body's tendency to reject tissue not its own.

"It's wonderful how the human mind can repress things it doesn't want to remember," Toni says. "I've completely forgotten the operation and never remember until somebody brings it up."

On the doctor's report the disease is listed as chronic nephritis.

In her own memory the trouble came on slowly, a feeling of increasing tiredness.

Doctors made the diagnosis but kept Toni going with drugs and a series of diets aimed at keeping a proper balance in her blood chemistry.

At one point her menus consisted of butter, sugar and various forms of water. Now she eats what she pleases.

In July 1963 her kidneys failed, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beugen, began the search for a donor. Dozens volunteered, but none proved acceptable.

In September 1963 parents of a child who had just died after a fall agreed to the transplant. Their names have never been revealed, not even to Toni.

It was a year ago Monday that Toni went home from the hospital.

Now back to a pert 110 pounds after once weighing only 77, Toni is maintaining a B-plus average in high school. She expects to study drama at the University of Minnesota after her graduation next June.

"The doctors are crossing their fingers with me," she says. "I'm their first experiment, their guinea pig, part of their equipment."

As to her own life, Toni evaluates it now as "completely normal."

New Trial Launched In Burglary Charges

Testimony continued today before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard at Lisbon in the second trial of Joe Louis Murray, 17, of East Liverpool, charged with burglary July 1 at the home of Mrs. Bessie Walker of East Liverpool.

He is accused of breaking into the home about 3:30 a.m. while Mrs. Walker and her daughter, a nurse, were asleep. The first trial ended in a hung jury. The case opened Monday.

The jury includes Lulu Durbin, Dorothy Reed and Olive Dutterer of East Liverpool; Harry K. Thomas, Janet Deville and William Satterthwaite of Salem; Raymond Morrelli of Leetonia; Homer Ferguson and James Crowell of Lisbon; Zelda Hutton of East Palestine; Ralph Felger of North Georgetown, and Bruce Unkefer of Minerva. R. D. 2. Darlene Volaw of Leetonia is alternate.

New Income Tax Guide Cuts Swim Pools, Oil Well Towers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Remember the swimming pool and oil-well towers that caused such a fuss last April?

Well, they aren't in the new "Your Federal Income Tax." But that's not all the Internal Revenue Service left out of its popular guide.

It rolled off 300,000 copies without realizing some of Acting Commissioner Bertrand M. Harding's opening statement got lost someplace on its way to the printers.

When you're in the glum business of collecting taxes, though, you take things in stride. So, the presses were stopped, the lost copy inserted, and another million or so booklets were run off.

The 300,000 offenders? They are being retained for "internal use," a spokesman said without getting terribly explicit.

The swimming pool and oil-well towers?

They got the revenue service into hot water with some oil men last spring when they were used to illustrate the controversial oil depletion allowance.

The oil men thought the illustration implied favorable tax treatment. Mortimer M. Caplin, who then was the tax commissioner, said nothing of the sort was intended, but he promised it wouldn't appear in the 1965 edition.

So the tax men explain the depletion allowance this time without any pictorial help.

A best seller, "Your Federal Income Tax" has been upped in price from 40 cents to 50 cents a copy, obtainable at district IRS offices.

For the additional dime you get additional reading matter — 160 pages instead of last year's 144. Tax changes are spotlighted in a special portion of the index.

New Owner Will Alter Camera Store's Name

The former Holiday Camera Shop at 418 Market St. has been purchased by a Weirton man who has announced a change in the name of the business.

The shop was purchased by Francis Newbrough of Weirton and will be known as the Newbrough Camera Center. He owns a film processing and finishing plant in Weirton, handling both black and white and color, and another retail store in Steubenville.

The new owner said only photographic equipment and related merchandise will be handled. The store will employ a manager and a clerk. The shop was owned by Pete Ravotta of Weirton.

Ohioan Pleads Guilty To Charge Of Murder

WHEELING — Patrick Muldrew Jr. of Tiltonsville, Ohio pleaded guilty here Monday to second degree murder shortly after his second trial got under way.

Prosecutor Thomas Goodwin said he would ask the court Friday to sentence Muldrew to life in prison under the state's habitual criminal law.

Muldrew, accused as an accessory in the robbery-slaying of a Wheeling supermarket manager three years ago, was convicted on the charge earlier but a federal judge held he was falsely indicted.

End Long Walkout

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Tire builders at Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.'s Plant 2 Monday night ended a week-long walkout over suspension of a worker for refusing to handle a work assignment. The wildcat walkout, which had idled 800, began a week ago Monday. The strikers refused to return until 37 employees, handed one week suspensions for violating a no-strike contract clause, went back on the job.

Inexperience Marks Potters; Warren 1st Test Friday

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Frank Chan, starting his first year as a varsity coach, may have to let patience be his guide.

The former East Liverpool and Washington & Jefferson court star, will have only two lettermen in the lineup when he sends the Potters against Warren Friday night at Memorial Auditorium in the season's opener.

As Chan sees the 1964-65 club, he said "as the season progresses I look for this team to show marked improvement. We may get off to a slow start but that is due to inexperience. I expect us to improve and turn out to surprise a few people."

The Potters, starting a week later than most teams, will be busy this weekend, hosting Warren Friday then traveling to Alliance Saturday night. Both games are Big 8 Conference battles and Chan expects to be in the running for the title this season.

What is the big weakness of this team? Chan pointed to "the lack of a winning complex, we haven't had that in several years. I hope we gain it early in the season so this team could jell and turn into a winner."

Six seniors were lost from last year's team but Frank Taylor, 6-1 senior, and Bob Maltarich, 6-2 senior, are the only returning lettermen. Lost from the squad a year ago are Frank McComas, Bob Forzano, Randy Stover, Bill Hall, Bob Mercer and Dave Bowersock.

The 1964-65 Potters show a taller team overall than last year and the present group has a lot of hustle.

Chan also stated "we have more than five players this year, I feel we have good bench strength and I can do some substituting."

"Our strongest points so far in scrimmage has been defense. We are concentrating on the backboards because in the past we have been outrebounded."

The starting lineup is pretty well set for Friday's curtain raiser but the Potters were dealt a setback in an inter-squad scrimmage last week when Terry Lawrence, tallest member of the club at 6-4 suffered a sprained ankle and may be out for another week missing the first two games.

Lawrence was scheduled for a starting berth, but it appears Bob Doland, a 6-3 junior, will get the starting nod now.

Looking at the prospects, Chan said "Taylor is our strongest rebounder. A real good jumper, he has been looking good on the boards."

Troubled with his shooting last season, Taylor has shown great improvement in this department, Chan added. At present, Taylor looks like the chief offensive punch for the Blue and White.

"Maltarich isn't shooting as well as he should. Bob lacks speed but should help with his overall experience and is big enough to help us on the boards," Chan said.

One starting guard post will go to Joe Massey, 5-11 senior, who is up from the reserve squad. "Joe is a real good guard, fine passer and good outside shot. We're expecting a lot out of him," Chan declared.

A sophomore, the first since the days of Kenny Cunningham and Kenny Miller, appears to have won a starting job.

Chan plans to start Vern Smith, 6-1½ sophomore, who was a standout at East Junior High. "Although inexperienced, he will provide us with that extra strength on the boards. He is a clever passer and fair shot," the Potter coach said.

Lawrence should be back in action in about a week. Chan describes Lawrence as very inexperienced but should be a big help on the boards.

Doland, a junior, is rated by Chan as a good rebounder with a lot of hustle.

Another senior who is pressing for a starting job according to Chan is Ron Kinsey, 5-10 guard. "Kinsey is a good outside shot and with his hustle, better attitude and shooting has shown great improvement over last season," Chan added.

Rounding out the first ten are three juniors, who Chan feels will give the Potters solid bench strength. They include Chuck Winters, a 6 footer, who ranks as a good shot, along with Jim Jones 6-1 and Mike McFarlane 5-9.

Chan, who came up the ladder in the Potter coaching system beginning at the junior high level, was named head coach last June when Jim Harris, another local boy, took the head coaching job at Rochester, Pa. Chan had served as an assistant to Harris for five years and was an aide to John Karaffa for one season.

The 34-year-old Chan was considered an outstanding set shot and playmaker when he starred at East Liverpool and Washington & Jefferson.

He is given the task of improving on a 9-9 season compiled by the Potters last season.

Looking over the 1964-65 schedule Chan singled out Midland as the leading team on the schedule calling the Leopards "the No. 1 team in Pennsylvania."

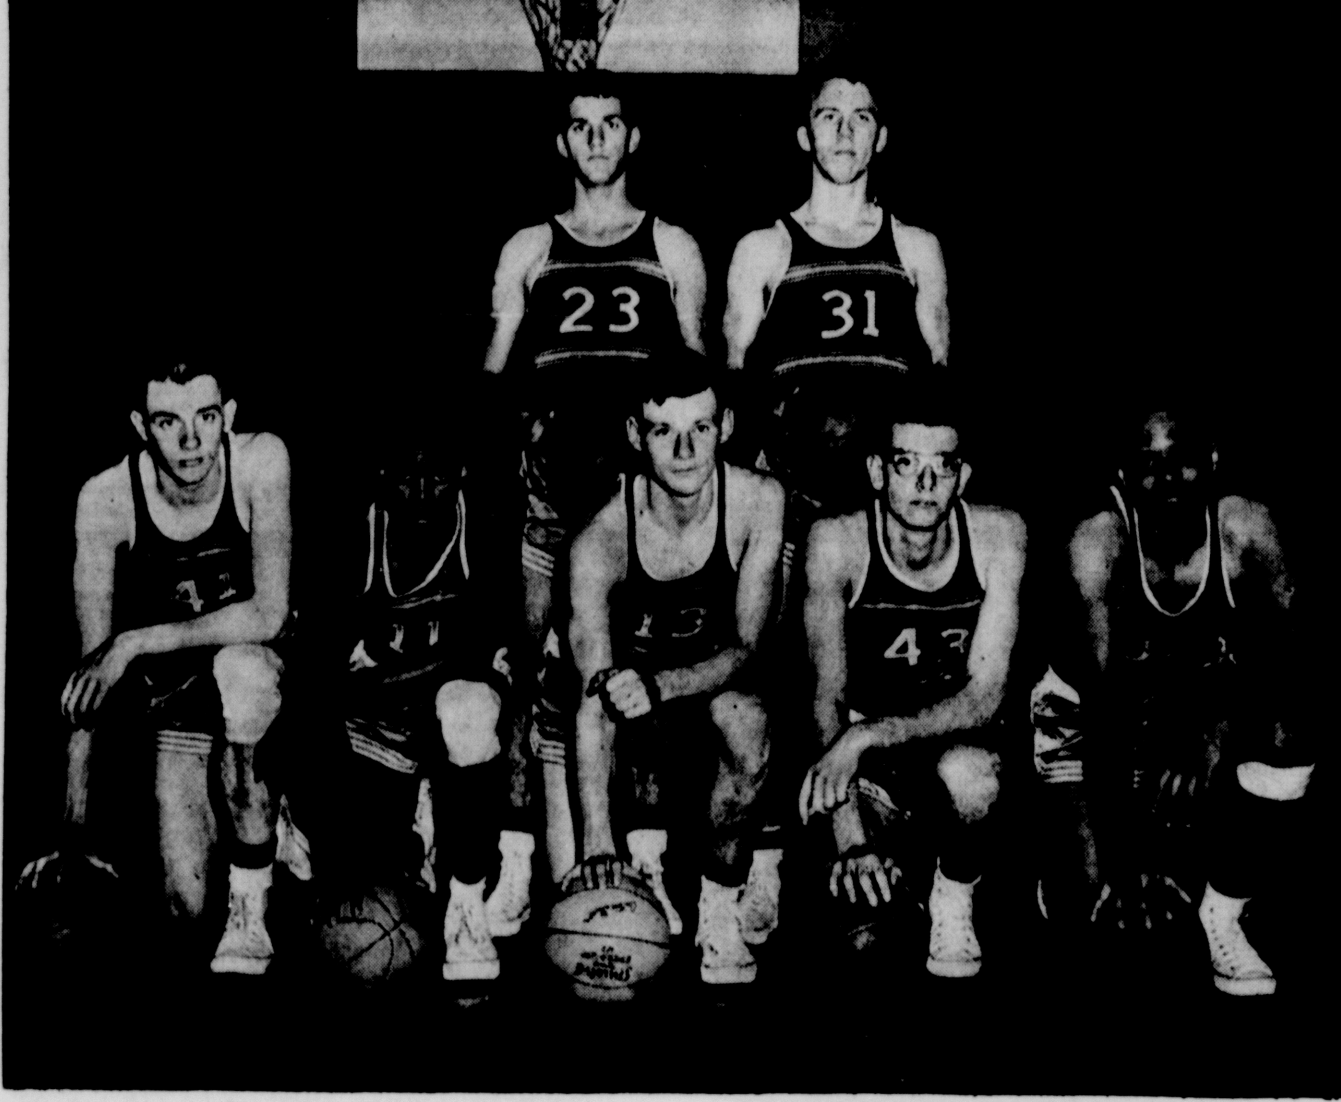

He looks for the Big 8 Conference to be tough with Canton McKinley and Steubenville Big Red, the main rivals.

The Potters have added two new schools to the schedule in Ravenna and Youngstown Ursuline.

Assisting Chan this season is Bob Dawson, another ex-Potter star, who was a head coach at Eastgate High School last year. Following graduation from East Liverpool Dawson, a clever playmaker, went on to captain Bowling Green, which was one of the nation's powerhouses several seasons back.

The 1964-65 schedule follows:

Dec. 11	Warren	home
Dec. 12	Alliance	away
Dec. 18	Midland	away
Dec. 19	Wellsville	home
Dec. 22	Massillon	home
Dec. 29	Ursuline	home
Jan. 8	Oak Glen	away
Jan. 9	Ravenna	home
Jan. 15	Steub. Big Red	home
Jan. 16	Ypsilaw South	home
Jan. 22	Steub. Central	home
Jan. 23	Canton McKinley	away
Jan. 29	Salem	home
Feb. 5	Toronto	home
Feb. 6	Wellsville	away
Feb. 12	Martins Ferry	away
Feb. 13	Niles	away
Feb. 19	Weirton	away

Michigan Named To First Place In Cage Rating

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan's powerful, veteran Wolverines, who have romped through three games without major difficulty, dominated The Associated Press' first regular season basketball poll today and confirmed their pre-season selection as the nation's best collegiate crew.

The Wolverines, who lost only one regular from the team that finished third in the nation last year, gained 32 of the 34 first-place votes cast and had a whopping 100-point margin over second-place Wichita.

Michigan, which already has survived two major tests, gained 337 points in the balloting on the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, 8 for third etc. Wichita, winner of its only start this season, moved up from third in the pre-season poll to second with 236 points.

A flock of upsets and surprises in the first week prompted a major shuffling of the first weekly ratings from the pre-season poll, with only top-ranking Michigan and 10th ranked St. John's of New York holding on to the same spots.

Three of the pre-season elite, fourth-ranked Davidson, No. 7 Syracuse and No. 8 Kansas State, split their two first-week starts and dropped from the top ten. UCLA, the defending national champion and No. 2 in the

- pre-season picks, also split, and plummeted to No. 7 after an opening loss to Illinois, 110-83.
- The top ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, are:
1. Michigan (32)
  2. Wichita
  3. Vanderbilt
  4. St. Louis
  5. San Francisco
  6. Minnesota (1)
  7. UCLA
  8. Duke
  9. Kentucky
  10. St. John's, N.Y.

Boston Star Betters Mark

NEW YORK (AP) — Gino Cappelletti, Boston's top pass catcher and field-goal kicker, has bettered his own American Football League scoring record with 155 points. He set the old mark of 147 in 1961.

The 30-year-old pride of the Patriots scored a touchdown on a pass from Babe Parilli, kicked a 12-yard field goal and added four conversions in Boston's 31-24 victory over Kansas City Sunday.

Cookie Gilchrist, Buffalo full-back, leads Matt Snell, the New York rookie, by 71 yards in their battle for the rushing lead. Each player has two games to go. Gilchrist has gained 862 yards in 193 attempts. Snell 791 in 178. Each has a 4.4 average.

Len Dawson of Kansas City still leads the passers.

Iowa set a Big Ten record when it attempted 50 passes against Purdue.

Villanova Beats Princeton

N. Carolina Whips Kentucky Five; Michigan Rolls To Easy Decision

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Villanova's Wildcats are scratching their way up the college basketball ladder. Their Kentucky cousins may be up a tree.

Bill Melchionni's jump shot with 22 seconds to go in overtime lifted Villanova past Princeton's Ivy League champions 61-60 Monday night while North Carolina was caging the nationally ranked Kentucky 'Cats 82-67.

The developments at Philadelphia and Charlotte, N.C., came too late to affect the Associated

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1964 PAGE 14

Press weekly ratings, released today with Kentucky in the No. 9 spot and Villanova barely outside the top ten. A shuffle on the next go-round is likely, however, with Villanova assuming the role of top 'Cat.

Top-ranked Michigan, meanwhile, cleared its bench early

Georgia Tech 66-52; Utah State thumped Pacific 98-74 and Arizona surprised Texas Tech 77-75 in other games involving national powers.

Tonight's top games match third-ranked Vanderbilt against Western Kentucky; San Francisco, No. 5, vs. San Francisco State; Minnesota, No. 6, vs. Marquette, and St. John's, No. 10, vs. Holy Cross.

Melchionni outscored Bill Bradley, Princeton's All-American sharpshooter, 24-23 as Villanova ran its record to 3-0. The Wildcats' junior star fired the winning two-pointer after Bill Kingston's layup had put Princeton ahead with one-half minute left in the extra session.

The Tigers froze the ball for the last two minutes of regulation play but Bradley missed a jump shot with two seconds remaining and the teams went into overtime deadlocked at 54-54.

The tall Tar Heels poured in 20 points in the last 5½ minutes to pull away from Kentucky. Sophomore Bob Lewis led the winners with 23 points, one more than teammate Billy Cunningham, who played the last 17 minutes with four personal fouls. North Carolina has won three of four starts. The Wildcats are 1-1.

Michigan, sweeping both backboards, raced to a 46-26 halftime lead over the visitors from the Big Eight Conference and breezed to its third straight victory with reserves seeing more action than regulars. Bill Buntin led Wolverine scorers with 14 points.

Twins Honored On Pennsylvania All-State Eleven

HARRISBURG, Pa. — The 1964 Associated Press Scholastic All-Pennsylvania football team features everything from speed and power to family tradition and identical twins.

Rich and Ron Saul of Butler became the first twins in history to be accorded all-state honors in Pennsylvania. Rich was named first team end, his brother honorable mention as guard. Both are juniors. The two are brothers of the Steelers' Bill Saul.

than a mile of yardage among them — Mike Reid of Altoona. Johnny Bulicz of Sheffield and Jim Shaughnessy of Oil City.

End Dave Bradley of Chief Logan, Guard Bob Pastine of Aliquippa and Center Linebacker Tom Buskey of Harrisburg round out the first squad.

Waller, a 5-9, 170-pound senior, not only set a possible state record with his touchdown passes, but also rolled up 2,052 yards in the air, connecting on 108 of 187 passes to lead Ridley Twp. to an undefeated-untied season.

His average of three touchdowns passes per game is better than the National Football League record of 34 TD aeries in 14 games by John Unitas of the Baltimore Colts.

Bulicz wound up as Pennsylvania's second highest point-maker of 1964 with 164 points and 1,625 yards gained.

Reid piled up 107 points for a new single season record at Altoona, even though he sat out three of his team's ten games with a leg injury. Six of Reid's points came on 35 and 39-yard field goals.

Saul caught 19 passes for a school record of 316 yards and three touchdowns and teamed up with his twin brother at the Butler High end posts on defense, causing the enemy double trouble.

Terrible Round, Says Arnie After Losing Cup Play

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
HONOLULU (AP)—Has Arnold Palmer lost his fabled finishing kick? Is he catching up with the world's greatest money-winning golfer? Is he developing a Jack Nicklaus complex?

"Ridiculous," says Palmer himself to such suggestions raised after he blew the Canada Cup Individual Trophy last Sunday in one of the most unbelievable collapses in bigtime golf.

"I just had a miserable round—I played lousy. It's as simple as that. That's all there is to it," Palmer, after firing successive rounds of 65-66-67-67 with the first of these in the preliminary pro-am, wilted to a 78 on the final day and allowed his teammate, Nicklaus, to walk away with his second successive individual crown.

The American team of Palmer and Nicklaus won easily, the fifth triumph in a row for the United States.

The individual duel between Palmer and Nicklaus, recognized as the world's two best pro golfers, overshadowed the one-sided team competition, although both Jack and Arnie reentered the emphasis on the individual play.

Palmer led through the first two days. After 36 holes, he had an eight-stroke bulge on his partner. After 54 holes, although Nicklaus fired a record-tying 65 in the third round, Arnie still led Jack by six shots.

Even with his record for fabulous comebacks, Nicklaus wasn't conceded a chance of making up six strokes on the redhot Palmer.

But Sunday evening, there was Nicklaus the champion with a 72-hole score of 276. Palmer was second with 278. Jack had gained eight strokes in 18 holes.

Was he beginning to feel the weight of his 34 years? Nicklaus is 10 years younger.

"Not at all, I felt better for this tournament than I have in a long time," Palmer said. "There can't be an excuse there."

Were the greens bumpy? "They were the same greens that I was one-putting the three days before," he said.

Is Nicklaus' success beginning to wear on his nerves and perhaps jar his confidence?

"Jack is young and strong, a fine golfer," Arnold said. "He's going to win a lot of tournaments. I hope I win a lot more. 'It's true I'm not as young as I was, and I plan to cut down on my tournament schedule—maybe 15 a year—but I'm not ready for the old people's home yet.'"

Palmer, who lost out to Nicklaus in the money-winning race and who finished second five times in a row this past season, showed no sign of discouragement.

It seemed a bit strange to see the charger, who has built up a reputation for miracle finishes, go into reverse and blow a tournament on the last day.

"For three days I played as good a golf as I've ever played in my life," he explained. "It happens I had a bad one. The law of averages. I don't intend to let it bug me. A new year is coming up."

CARDS' QUARTERBACK Charlie Johnson, who led St. Louis to a 28-19 victory over the Browns Sunday to keep his team alive for a chance at first place in the Eastern Division, is shown working on an engineering problem at Washington University in St. Louis. Johnson is working toward his doctor's degree in Chemical Engineering. (UPI Telephoto)

Bucks Complete Southern Sweep

By The Associated Press
Ohio State's Buckeyes enjoyed another helping of southern hospitality Monday night, defeating Houston on the Texans' court 77-69.

Saturday, the travelling Buckeyes dropped TCU in Fort Worth, 84-79.

Dick Ricketts led the OSU scoring with 22 points, followed by Ron Sepic with 15.

Guard Joe Hamood, however, was the game's high scorer, pacing Houston with 29. The game was tight most of the way with both teams playing controlled ball until Ohio moved out in front to stay with 10-23 left.

In other action, all against out-of-state foes, Ohio teams split the wins and losses 2-2.

Xavier, led by Steve Thomas, overcame an early deficit and crushed Union of Kentucky at Cincinnati 96-66. Thomas, a deadly accurate shooter, got 34 points. The game was close for the first 13 minutes until Xavier broke it open. The Musketeers led 43-25 at halftime.

At Detroit, John Carroll of Cleveland made it a battle for a half but then the Titan's Dorie Murrey came into the game and led his mates to a 81-66 victory. Murrey sat out the first half, resting an injured leg. He scored 23 points. Ken Esper led Carroll with 17 points.

Undeclared Marietta, playing at home, coasted to a 104-67 win over winless Waynesburg of Pennsylvania and Tri-State of Indiana dropped visiting De fiance 110-89.

N. Carolina State Floor Coach Quits

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Everett Case, the Old Gray Fox who helped bring bigtime college basketball to the South, resigned Monday as North Carolina State's basketball coach because of extreme fatigue.

Case, who was to have retired next June 30 after 19 seasons with the Wolfpack and nine days after his 65th birthday, said the decision to quit had been "coming for some time."

Athletic Director Roy Clogston and the faculty athletic committee immediately approved the appointment of assistant Press Maravich, 45, as head coach and granted Case's additional request that he be allowed to serve as an advisory coach.

Case, whose State teams compiled a 378-133 record prior to this season, said he suffered headaches and extreme fatigue during pre-season practice.

Saturday night's game with Wake Forest at Winston-Salem made up his mind. "I had to get a chair and sit down," he said. "Then I thought I was never going to get home."

Case added, "I would have liked to have finished, but it was not the proper thing to do."

N.C. State lost to Wake Forest and beat Furman in its only games this season.

Maravich is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., was graduated from Davis and Elkins College and has a master's degree from West Virginia University.

Case, a bachelor, came to State in July 1946 after coaching several service teams to a combined 56-5 record during four years in the Navy.

38 At Christmas Dinner Fete For Newell Lions And Wives

Thirty-eight attended the husband-wife Christmas dinner and party of the Newell Lions Club Monday night at the Travelers Hotel, featuring a seasonal program and group singing.

Entertainment included selections by an instrumental combo of Oak Glen High School musicians, Cindy Collins, Ivan Howell and Danny Foltz, and songs by the "China Belles" quartet of Mrs. Juanita Garver, Mrs. Nancy Beaver, Mrs. Jan Dietz and Mrs. Loretta Willoughby.

There was group singing of carols, with Mrs. Helen Cordray and Albert Logston accompanying.

Edward P. Fahner, president, presided. John T. Robison was presented a membership development award, and James Seavers, Newell mailman, was inducted as a new member.

Robison announced the club's Christmas candy sale was a "success," with 500 pounds sold to date.

It was announced that the annual community Christmas sing of the Newell Women's Club will be held Dec. 20 at 4 p. m. at the Newell Methodist Church.

The party concluded with a gift exchange. Thomas W. Miller was program chairman. The next meeting will be held Dec. 21 at 6:30 p. m. at the Shamrock Restaurant.

The Wright Brothers tested a foil-supported boat in 1907.

Young Driver Convicted On 'Unsafe' Auto

A 20-year-old Wellsville man whose stalled car was struck from the rear Nov. 30 on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road" was convicted today in Municipal Court after a lengthy hearing on a State Highway Patrol charge of operating an unsafe car.

Acting Judge Paul Tobin imposed a fine of $10 and costs on Harold L. Wright, 2307 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, after hearing almost an hour of testimony and argument.

James R. McDevitt, 43, of 613 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, whose auto struck Wright's, appeared as a witness for the prosecution. Later, McDevitt was fined $10 and costs on a charge of failure to stop within the assured clear distance.

Wright, represented by Atty. Donald Smith, disputed some of the allegations of Patrolman William C. Muckleroy who alleged the car had one headlight that was not functioning, no tail lights, no license plate light and no emergency brake and all four tires were bald.

Wright testified his headlights and tail lights were in operating condition prior to the crash. He blamed the collision for disrupting the electrical system. Wright testified that his car became overheated and stopped as he drove toward Wellsville. He said he was preparing to alight from the car and signal approaching traffic with a flashlight when the auto was hit.

McDevitt testified the stalled auto loomed up suddenly in front of him as "a dark object." He said there were no tail lights, but he did not observe if the headlights were functioning.

William Wright, the defendant's brother and a former Air Force mechanic, testified that the headlights, the foot brake and the emergency brake were in working condition. He said he considered the tires safe.

Summing up, the acting judge pointed out the defendant admitted three of his tires were without tread and that the hood was held down by wire. Those factors alone were sufficient to make the vehicle "unsafe" in the eyes of the law, he added.

Wright also was charged with not affixing his signature to his driver's license.

On the second charge, the judge fined him $10 and costs, but suspended both the fine and the costs.

Cilli Again Heads Midland Board

Edward Cilli was re-elected as president, and Maurice Newman, vice president, at the annual reorganization meeting of the Midland Board of Education Monday night.

Cilli was appointed to the board in 1959, serving two years, before being elected to a six-year term in 1961. Newman is serving his first full term, having been elected to a six-year term in 1959. Both were first named to their present offices in 1963.

Atty. Frank A. Suffoletta was retained as solicitor.

Meetings were continued on the second Monday of the month at 8 p. m. at the board offices in the Lincoln High School Gymnasium and administration building. The next meeting will be Monday evening.

Ohio View-Industry Club's Card Party Has Yule Bazaar

Mrs. Alfred Monaco and Mrs. John Siranovich won pinocle prizes and bunco winners were Mrs. Ned Nutz, Mrs. John Melalik and Mrs. Anthony Acon.

The Rev. and Mrs. George Sanner and children of Hagerstown, Md., have returned home following a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Murry Sanner of Ohioville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Basinger of Ohioville entertained at a party Thursday night, honoring their son, Russell A. Basinger, a sophomore at Kent State University, on his 19th birthday anniversary. A Kent State pennant in blue and gold decorated the cake. Russell returned to college Sunday.

Tony DiMarzio, Frank Toplak and Anthony DiCiccio of Ohioville and John Cerasi and Carl DiMarzio of Midland have returned from a deer-hunting trip to Coudersport, Pa.

125 At Lisbon Youth Session

LISBON — Some 125 attended the community youth rally sponsored Sunday afternoon at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church by the Lisbon Ministerial Association.

The Rev. Ralph Green, pastor, welcomed the area youths and Beth Halfley and John McGee of the host church senior high group, led the call to worship and the Scripture reading.

"March of the Magi Kings" was played by Miss Jodine Pilmer, organist of the church, and selections were sung by the mixed quartet of Geneva College. "Problems Concerning Young People of Lisbon and Columbiana County" was the subject of the panel discussion by adults and youth.

The Rev. Thomas F. Webster, rector of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church of Lisbon and the Salem Episcopal church; Dr. Wade Bacon, president of the Lisbon Board of Education; Robert Lewis, Columbiana County extension agent and 4-H club supervisor, and James L. McBride, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, served as the adult panel.

The youth panel included Nancy Ramsey, First Presbyterian Church; Jean Stockman, First Christian Church; Diane Wilhelm, St. Jacob's United Church of Christ; Russell Long, church of the Nazarene, and Carol Longnecker of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Edwin Kauffman, senior high adviser of host church, was moderator.

The Rev. Fred Shiltz of the Methodist Church and the Rev. Frank Hare of the Beaver Valley Larger Parish assisted with the service.

Senior and junior high students and leaders of the Hanoverton United Presbyterian, the Elkton Methodist and Beaver Valley Larger Parish also attended.

Demonstration Group Will Meet At Elkton

The Elkton Township Home Demonstration Group will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Richard Estell south of Lisbon.

There will be a coverdish dinner and gift exchange.

The WSCS of the Elkton Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Perry Baker for a coverdish dinner and gift exchange Dec. 16.

Larry Smith, Steve Harrold, Dale Moore, Karen Woodburn, Diana Evans, Tom Sturgeon and Maria Marchbanks attended the Lisbon Area Youth Rally Sunday.

U.S. Delays Policy Speech To Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States has delayed its policy speech to the U.N. General Assembly for another week in hopes the Soviet Union will give some clue to what it intends to do about its peace-keeping debt.

The postponement — second in a week — disappointed many delegates anxious to learn the Johnson administration's position on U.N. issues.

The United States also is awaiting the return of ailing

Secretary-General U Thant, who took over the financial negotiations shortly before he went to the hospital with a gastric ailment last Friday.

A U.N. spokesman announced late Monday that Thant will be back on the job by the middle of next week. A U.S. source said the United States will speak in the assembly about then.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: The boot season is here, and I have a good hint to pass on to wives who have tried to dry out hunting boots overnight.

I used to try to hang them upside down over a furnace—stuff them with paper etc., but they were still almost impossible for my hunter to pull on for the next hunt.

Then I found that if I reversed the vacuum hose on my vacuum cleaner (so it would BLOW), inserted it in the boot and let it run, the boots would be bone dry within minutes. Much comfort for him and easy for me!

MRS. R. E. MAYFIELD.

How about that? It also works on children's wet shoes. I think you're wonderful Mrs. Mayfield!

Never try to dry boots over heat of any kind. RUINS leather! I know. I tried. I flopped. They curled up and were ruined.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I keep a candle stub in my recipe card box, and when I write out a new recipe, I rub the candle briskly over the written card. Smudges or spills can then be easily wiped off because this puts a thin coat of wax on the card!

ELSIE HARVAN.

DEAR HELOISE: Blessings on the lady who suggested sewing buttons on certain garments with elastic thread!

This gave me a nifty - thrifty idea for ladies' cuff links.

Just take four pretty shank-type buttons, tie 'em together in pairs with a double strand of elastic thread, an, voila!

They are easy to insert, and they snap together and hold the cuff firmly and neatly.

I just found five sets in my button box!

FREDONIA.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently we moved into a new home. It is three years old but was never completed.

The steel window frames have masking tape on them and as I have, I cannot get the tape off.

If you have any suggestions, I would be ever so grateful. They are an eyesore in an otherwise lovely home.

COLETTA M. RICHARDSON.

Can anyone help this home-maker with her problem? If so, write to me care of this paper. We sure would be grateful.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Just had to drop a line to you at once to thank that dear, lazy teen-ager for her idea about the mixture of catsup, mustard and chopped pickles for hot dog - hamburger spread. Thanks, honey.

Since I think I'm even lazier, here's another idea about that spread — use instant minced onion. No chopping — just soak like the directions say and presto! Hardly any work at all.

A LAZY, MIDDLEAGED MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: When I diaper my small baby for the night, I do not use two diapers, as they are too bulky and uncomfortable for her.

Instead, I cut several gauze diapers in half, giving me squares of extra cloth. I fold each of these squares in thirds (making a long strip), then I fold one end of the strip back part way. I put one of these strips inside of the diaper where the thickness is needed most.

The net result is: It's more comfortable and not bulky for the wee one . . .

MOLLY.

DEAR HELOISE: I use a thin-line eyebrow pencil, and I had reached the point of fury when the third one of these expensive pencils jammed.

Poking with a pin didn't help, and the lead crumbled when I tried to apply it by holding it in my fingers.

Weirton-Steubenville Area Eyes Transportation Plans

Hiring of a professional planning concern to develop a long-range transportation plan for the Steubenville - Weirton Area Transportation Study is expected to be considered at a meeting of the coordinating committee Jan. 6 in Weirton.

Norman D. Ferrari Jr. of Weirton has been elected chairman of the permanent coordinating committee, comprised of various groups and officials of Hancock and Brooke Counties and the city of Weirton in West Virginia, and Jefferson County and the city of Steubenville in Ohio.

The permanent committee replaces an interim committee that has been in existence approximately two years, and was the originator of the study in its initial stages. Nicholas G. Kaschak, director of the Jefferson County Regional Planning Commission, has served as temporary chairman the last few months.

Aim of the coordinating committee is to develop and promote a long - range highway and transportation plan for the two - state region. Its organization was necessary to comply with federal laws on qualifying for federal aid in the transportation study.

Various municipal bodies in the three counties have agreed to allow the coordinating committee to act for them in developing the transportation plan, including Chester City Council, Hancock County Commissioners and the Development and Planning Commission also are involved.

Out of desperation, I grabbed an old mechanical pencil, and my thin eyebrow lead fits in it just perfectly. It's cheaper, the lead hasn't jammed yet, and the "fatter" pencil is much easier to hold when lining my brows.

GAY.

Gay, I know what you mean. My eyebrow pencil jammed, too, so I used the refill leads in an ordinary mechanical pencil, and it works perfectly.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: During the winter season, I find keeping track of the children's gloves, scarves, and hats, becomes quite a problem, especially if you have four or more children as I do.

I have solved this problem by clipping a heavy plastic bag to a man's clip pants hanger and putting all their outdoor accessories in this bag.

It not only saves time in getting them dressed but it also saves time when undressing them, and it certainly keeps our closet in order.

MRS. KINGSTON.

Wedding Band Found In 'Army' Yule Kettle

Salvation Army officials said today they are seeking the owner of a gold wedding band which apparently was dropped by mistake into one of the organization's Christmas fund "kettles" in downtown East Liverpool last week.

Maj. William Hathorn said the ring was dropped into the kettle in front of The First National Bank. The ring was found Friday when receipts were being counted. He said additional information may be obtained by telephoning 385-1822.

Venus 'Ice Clouds' Indicate Possibility Of Life For Planet

BALTIMORE (AP) — The clouds surrounding the planet Venus are composed of water in the form of ice particles, a team of Johns Hopkins University astrophysicists announced.

The scientists said the finding of water vapor on Venus raises the possibility of oxygen in its atmosphere. They based their reasoning on calculations that all of Earth's oxygen could be accounted for by the releasing of oxygen from water vapor in the upper atmosphere.

The oxygen is freed by the action of sunlight.

The latest findings on Venus, earth's twin sister in size, density and general composition, were obtained from an unmanned balloon flight last Oct. 27.

The possibility of a source of oxygen and a previous discovery that its atmosphere contains carbon dioxide raises the possibility that life in some form might exist on the planet.

The Johns Hopkins team, headed by Dr. John Strong, concluded the latest data confirmed earlier measurements by Dr. Strong showing the surface temperature to be close to minus 40 degrees Fahrenheit, with only a few degrees difference between the light and dark sides of Venus.

Radio-telescopes on Earth and on the Mariner 2 space probe, which passed within 21,000 miles of Venus in December 1962, indicated the surface temperature was 800 degrees Fahrenheit.

"Interpretation of radio-telescope waves as an indication of temperature" has neither been proven or universally accepted," said Dr. Strong, director of the Johns Hopkins Astrophysics Laboratory.

The Johns Hopkins scientists suggest that the previous findings may only indicate a large amount of lightning-like electrical activity in the turbulent atmosphere of Venus.

Rebel Students Snub Peace Plan

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A peace offer spurned by the University of California's rebel student group comes under the scrutiny of 1,200 faculty members on the Berkeley campus today with a return to order of continued demonstrations for unrestricted politico-social campaigning in the balance.

The Academic Senate — all faculty members with tenure — set a meeting for 3 p.m. to review the squelched peace proposal, listen to alternative plans and announce their opinion.

Insurgent students temporarily suspended until 8 a.m. Wednesday their strike and picketing of university entrances and classroom buildings in an effort to promote a general strike. They said whether or not they resume depends on the Academic Senate's report on the peace plan turned down Monday.

Rebel student leaders went to Sacramento saying they would place their protests before Gov. Edmund G. Brown today.

A minority of the 27,400-member student body is demanding the right to recruit volunteers and solicit funds anywhere on campus for off-campus politico-social activities, including civil rights work.

Their protests led to a loosening of regulations by the university Board of Regents last month. The regents gave permission for on-campus solicitation and recruitment in three designated areas for lawful off-campus activity.

A spokesman for the insurgent group, called Free Speech Movement, said the movement's prime demand is for removal of the word "lawful" from the regulations. He said students want to participate in such activities as civil rights demonstrations in the South because they feel they are worthy though unlawful.

Only the regents can change the regulations.

Free Speech Movement demonstrations, protest rallies and picketing have produced turmoil on the campus over the past two months.

The group staged a sit-in at the university's administration building which was broken up with the arrest last Thursday of 814 demonstrators on orders of Gov. Brown.

Those arrested included 590 students, 89 teaching assistants, researchers and university employees, and 135 persons not connected with the university.

The Alameda County district attorney's office said that because of the large number arrested it has been unable to identify the 135 non-students.

At a mass arraignment Monday the total number dropped to 768 with dismissal of charges against teen-agers caught in the sit-in.

Municipal Judge Ruppert Crittenden told the 768 they face charges which "may seriously affect your future."

He continued their cases to Monday so attorneys could prepare their defense.

In a dramatic convocation in the university's Greek Theater Monday, university president Clark Kerr offered a peace plan drafted by the Council of Department Chairmen which included dropping of university charges against four student leaders of the Free Speech Movement.

As he finished, the FSM president, Mario Savio, sought to address the crowd of about 17,000 over the microphone just relinquished by Kerr.

Campus police quickly seized Savio and hauled him offstage as members of the audience booed and shouted: "Let him speak."

He was released moments later and allowed to speak. He said that all he wanted to do was announce an immediate student rally. Savio said he had been "hustled off" by the police and had not been struck.

Savio later told the rally the peace proposal was "totally unacceptable."

Sweeping To End

Wrong Way Rule Eased For Autos

Council instructed Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey Monday night to suspend for 90 days the so-called "wrong way parking" ordinance to allow residents of hilly streets to park their autos headed down-grade in slippery weather.

A brief discussion ensued when the director asked Council to consider amendment of the parking ordinance as an aid to motorists during the winter. The affected ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to park "against the free flow of traffic." Autos at the curb must be headed in the same direction as traffic is moving in the adjoining lane.

"IT HAS been customary in the past for the director and the police chief to waive enforcement of the ordinance for 90 days, the maximum time allowed," Councilman Donald Hancock said. "I can't see why we can't continue that."

If enforcement is waived for 90 days, "it will only take us to the end of February and there is plenty of winter after that," Vodrey replied.

If necessary, Council will recommend another 90-day waiver of the enforcement, Councilman Floyd Murray replied.

Police Chief A. J. Radeschi said the eased parking regulation went into effect today in all residential areas.

Vodrey also raised the question of covering or removing dozens of signs that ban parking on nights when the mechanized street sweeper is working. He asked Council to stipulate whether he should "leave them up, cover them or take them down."

He pointed out removing the signs and then replacing them in the spring when sweeping resumes would be costly from a labor standpoint.

THE mechanized sweeper customarily does not operate during cold weather — when there is likely to be snow or ice on the street.

As the discussion ended, Council approved a motion by Murray to remove the parking ban signs and authorize "wrong way parking" for 90 days.

Vodrey also read Council a letter from the Rockwell Manufacturing Co. of Pittsburgh asserting it had not received payment for 20 parking meters which the city bought about two years ago.

President George E. Willshaw said he believes money has been provided to make the payment. Councilman Robert W. Sample, finance committee chairman, said the firm will be paid "within the next month."

ROBERT W. PAISLEY, general counsel for the Neptune Broadcasting Corp. of Steubenville, presented Council with a letter asking for a meeting to discuss the company's request filed Nov. 2 for permission to operate a "non-exclusive" television cable service in East Liverpool. At the time, Council already had granted a franchise to Rego Industries of Hoboken, N. J.

Council took no direct action on Paisley's letter. However, Councilman William Davis, chairman of the franchise committee, announced later that his committee had rejected the Neptune firm's proposal of Nov. 2. Council then ratified the committee's action.

Reading from a newspaper clipping, Murray said the Follansbee Council voted, 5-1, against granting a franchise to the Neptune concern "because it would have been breaking faith with a company to which it already had given a 20-year franchise."

ROBERT ANTHONY of Ridgeway Ave. appeared to ask what action Council had taken on his request to be granted a section of vacant city-owned property on which to build a garage.

Murray, as head of the street committee, reported the group decided to take no action on the request. The ground is in the area where an overhead ramp is scheduled to be built at W. 9th and Chestnut Sts. and the committee believed the tract might be needed for the span project, Murray said.

The claims committee was given a $124 bill against the city from Mrs. Gladys Maxwell, 1506 St. Clair Ave., who said the gas line at her home was broken Nov. 7 by a highlift excavating a sewer line for the city.

Council filed a report from the County Election Board showing $645 will be withheld from the city's next real estate tax settlement as its share of the

Silent Comedy At Its Best

Marcel Marceau, the famed French pantomimist, will join Red Skelton in an hour of silent comedy, to be seen on CBS February 11. Neither the veteran TV comic nor his guest star will say a word throughout the show. But there will be some spoken words by Richard Doan.

The program, a special edition of Skelton's Tuesday night series, was taped last week in Hollywood before what CBS described as an invited audience of "foreign dignitaries and other distinguished guests."

WARNER BROS. apparently believes it ought to have a cinch of a TV show if two tried-and-true formats, the Western and the situation comedy, can be combined successfully.

The product of this theory is a proposed half-hour weekly comedy series called "F Troop," about a post-Civil War cavalry troop.

The studio announced it is developing the idea for the ABC network and has cast Forrest Tucker in the starring role.

Tucker is an actor with 90 movies to his credit, besides four years of touring in the national company of "The Music Man," playing the title role.

A FILM SYNDICATION firm has come forward with an offer to top National Educational Television's bid to distribute the United States Information Agency film, "John F. Kennedy: Years of Lightning, Days of Drums," to the nation's 80 educational TV stations.

In a telegram to George Stevens Jr., USA director, Charles F. Dolan, president of Sterling Movies U.S.A., said if Congress approves domestic release of the film, his firm will produce prints and distribute them "to all U. S. television stations as a service to the industry and to the viewing public."

A copy of the offer was sent to Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., who is drafting a resolution declaring it "the sense of Congress" that the film should be shown in this country.

Apparently no dispensation to permit showing the documentary here is possible until Congress reconvenes in January.

The USIA is forbidden to release the film in this country because the agency's appropriations call for its activities to be directed solely overseas.

Many persons who have seen the JFK documentary have hailed it an outstanding memorial.

ABC CONFIRMED what everybody already knew, that "Shindig," a televised half hour

'65 Tax Rates Get Approval

Council gave unanimous approval Monday night to a resolution approving the city real estate tax rates for 1965 as set up by the County Budget Commission and showing virtually no change from 1964.

The resolution shows a total of 7.7 mills will be provided for municipal purposes next year — with 3.6 mills inside the 10-mill limitation and 4.1 mills in voted levies outside the limitation.

The budget commission's figures show that revenue inside the limitation will total $149,904 and income from voted levies will total $170,725.

The general fund will receive $62,460 from 1.5 mills inside the limitation and an equal amount with the same millage will be provided for bond retirement, the resolution shows.

Also inside the 10-mill limit are two items of thirty-hundredths of a mill, one for the fire department pension fund and the other for police department pensions. Each will realize $12,492, the resolution stipulates.

In the levies outside the 10-mill limit are: City Hospital, seventy-one hundredths of a mill, $29,148; incinerator department, 2.40 mills, $99,937; and firemen's salaries, 1-mill, $41,640.

The City Hospital levy and a half-mill of the garbage levy were renewed at the general election Nov. 3.

The tax figures approved last night will help form the basis for the budget commission's determination of the overall amounts the city can expect to receive next year. Data on anticipated total revenue for the city will be available early in the new year.

Rocket Loses Contact With Guiding Star

WASHINGTON (AP) — Space officials say the Mariner 4 Mars spacecraft has lost contact with its guiding star Canopus — possibly because of a speck of space dust — but they expect to command it to regain its lock on the star.

The loss of lock on Canopus does not affect Mariner's course, which is expected to take it near Mars next July 14. It does affect its attitude, which could be of great importance when it reaches Mars and tries to photograph the planet.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Monday that Mariner had lost its lock on Canopus several times previously and that they expect this to happen from time to time.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the Democratic Study Group, an organization of House liberals, are backing sweeping changes in party and House rules and procedures.

In general, the changes would strengthen the hand of the party leadership and the majority of the House as against committee chairmen. At least one might help President Johnson's proposal for medical care for the aged to win House approval.

This recommendation would revise the party makeup on House committees to reflect Democratic election gains which gave it 68 per cent of the House.

The Ways and Means Committee, which has been the graveyard of the Social Security health program in the House, has remained at a 3-2 ratio; now, 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans. The division has been so close that a shift of one or two votes might make the difference.

Sec. McNamara Sets Defense Budget Goals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says he hopes to keep the defense budget next year to slightly below $50 billion.

After checking over budget figures for two hours at the White House with President Johnson on Saturday, McNamara said recent economies in the Defense Department will permit a substantial cut in new spending authority requested for the fiscal year which begins next July 1.

He said the most recent estimate of spending for the present year is $49.8 billion and the new budget should be close to that.

Funeral Set Thursday For Ohio Novelist, 88

CINCINNATI (AP) — Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., Thursday for Mrs. Emma S. Backus, author, civic leader and wife of a local businessman.

Mrs. Backus died Monday 11 days before her 89th birthday.

She wrote two historical novels, "Rose of Roses" and "A Place in the Sun," as well as some dramatic works.

Aggies Hire New Football Mentor

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Texas A&M remembered how Paul (Bear) Bryant rebuilt its football fortunes, so it got a man from Bryant's championship team to coach it back to greatness.

From Alabama, where he has been assistant head coach to Bryant, comes Texan Gene Stallings to take over the sagging fortunes of the Aggies.

Stallings was named head coach of A&M Monday while Henry (Hank) Foldberg, who has been athletic director and head coach for three years, becomes full-time athletic director.

Stallings was an end on the 1956 Texas A&M team which went undefeated and won the Southwest Conference championship under Bryant.

Bryant quit at A&M in 1957, however, and went to Alabama, his alma mater, which was looking for somebody to drag it out of the doldrums. Bryant did that—he has had two national champions at Alabama.

Stallings was freshman coach in 1957 but went to Alabama with Bryant in 1958.

In 1956 A&M couldn't participate in a bowl game because the school was on probation for recruiting violations. But the next year it was off probation and Bryant's team, which had an 8-2 record, played in the Gator Bowl.

Since then A&M hasn't had a winning team. This past season it won only one game, bringing the record of Foldberg in three years to 6-23-1.

Stallings and Foldberg both were given four-year contracts. Stallings, 29, is a native of Paris, Tex.

Chance Has Lowest ERA In 21 Years Of Baseball

BOSTON (AP) — Dean Chance, 23-year-old Los Angeles Angels' right-hander, posted the lowest average in 21 years in winning the American League's earned-run championship last season, the official figures disclosed today.

Chance yielded only 51 earned runs in 278 innings for a 1.65 mark, the best since Spud Chandler of the New York Yankees finished with 1.64 in 1943. Chance was named winner of the Cy Young as the majors' outstanding pitcher in 1964 last month.

The Angels' star also pitched the most innings, 278, the most complete games, 15, and the most shutouts, 11. Five of his 20 victories were by 1-0 scores, tying a major league record. Joel Horlen of the Chicago White Sox was second in the ERA competition with 1.88. He was followed by Whitey Ford of the Yankees, a two-time earned-run king, 2.13; Gary Peters of the White Sox 2.50, Juan Pizarro, another Chicago left-hander, 2.56, and rookie Wally Bunker of Baltimore, 2.69.

Bunker had the highest winning percentage, .792, on a record of 19 victories and only five defeats.

Al Downing, the Yanks' southpaw fireballer, was the strike-out leader with 217. He also issued the most bases on balls, 120.

Baltimore reliever Stu Miller gave up the most intentional bases on balls, 14, while Bill Monbouquette of Boston allowed the most hits, 258. Orlando Pena, veteran Kansas City right-hander, permitted the most runs, 126, and home runs, 40.

Hall Of Fame Will Honor 11 Members

NEW YORK (AP) — Football stars, coaches and fans and notables from business and government will be among the capacity crowd of 1,500 honoring former All-America Donald B. Lourie and 10 new members to the Football Foundation's Hall of Fame tonight.

Lourie, an All-America quarterback at Princeton in 1920 and now chairman of the board of Quaker Oats, will be presented with the Foundation's gold medal award at the organization's annual dinner at the Waldorf Astoria.

Notre Dame, which lost its final game to Southern California after winning its first nine, will receive the MacArthur Bowl as the Foundation's outstanding college team of 1964.

The gold medal award is presented to "distinguished Americans who have by their interest, spirit and conduct rendered distinguished service to the game and spirit of American football."

The 10 Hall of Fame inductees include one coach—Col. Earl H. (Red) Blaik, famed for his teams at Dartmouth and Army. He now is an executive of Avco Corp.

The others are Robert J. Herwig, California center, 1935-37; Allison (Pooley) Hubert, Alabama fullback, 1922-25; Charles O. Carroll, University of Washington halfback, 1926-28; Ray R. Evans, Kansas halfback, 1941-42; W. Earl Sprackling, Brown quarterback, 1908-11; Kyle Rote, Southern Methodist back, 1948-50; and three deceased players, William M. Malory, Yale fullback, 1921-23; Langdon Lee, Princeton tackle, 1892-94; and Charles R. Rinehart, Lafayette guard, 1894-97.

Judge Obliges, Drunk In Jail For Christmas

CINCINNATI (AP) — Frank Travis is just where he wanted to be for Christmas — in the workhouse, Travis, 64 and listed by police as homeless, walked into a police station Sunday and asked to be arrested. He was booked for drunkenness.

The case came up in police court Monday and Travis told Judge George Heitzler he had no money or home and wanted the jail sentence. "You get turkey at the workhouse on Christmas," he explained. Judge Heitzler obliged with a 30-day term.

Auto Mishap Fatal

KENTON, Ohio (AP) — A 38-year-old Kenton man, William Curtin, was killed Monday when his car struck a bridge guard rail at a snowy intersection in Hardin County, about two miles east of the Marion County line.

AREA
Representative
I will employ 4 men for this area — who will work hard, $200 per week, no money in investment. No door to door canvassing. No overnight travel. This is direct selling, but I do not necessarily need experienced men. You will be trained at company expense. If you qualify you will be furnished company car, group insurance, bonuses and profit sharing plan. FOR INTERVIEW APPOINTMENT, CALL DEAN TALKINGTON at 385-9803.

HOW ABOUT YOU ?
What will happen to you in the next 6 months? Still be looking at ads? Still be looking for the big time but afraid to make the first step? The bills keep rolling in? Wife and family need things? Make up your mind today, shake that old stigma. Look Alive! STOP IN TODAY, 2307 St. Clair Avenue.

Don't expect your neighbors to find a buyer for that old refrigerator or washing machine. Advertise in the Review Want Ads and you'll let everybody's neighbors know what you have to sell and how much you want for it.

Review Want Ads sell anything of value. A 30c hat to a $75,000 home.

Junior Editors Quiz on EARTH

QUESTION: If the world is round, what is meant by going to the ends or the four corners of the earth?

ANSWER: To the ancient peoples, the world seemed obviously flat. They invented many strange conceptions to suggest what might lie beyond the small area of the world they knew. In India, the Hindus thought of the world as having a slight upcurve as shown in our illustration, taken from an old woodcut. What was underneath? An enormous turtle, said the Hindus; on his back, four strong elephants holding up the earth--and these represented the four directions, north, east, south, west. These, perhaps, may have suggested the four corners of the earth. In the circle below, we look down on the earth as a flat disc, as imagined by many ancient peoples. Around the outside flows the ocean river, Oceanus. When a man went "to the ends of the earth," he had gone as far as he could in any direction. The philosopher Plato (left) thought of the earth as a cube with a square flat top. Centuries before, the Egyptians had conceived of the earth as box-like, encircled by a river. Since a box has four corners, this is perhaps another source of the "four corners of the earth" saying. The four corners meant the most remote places on earth one might imagine.

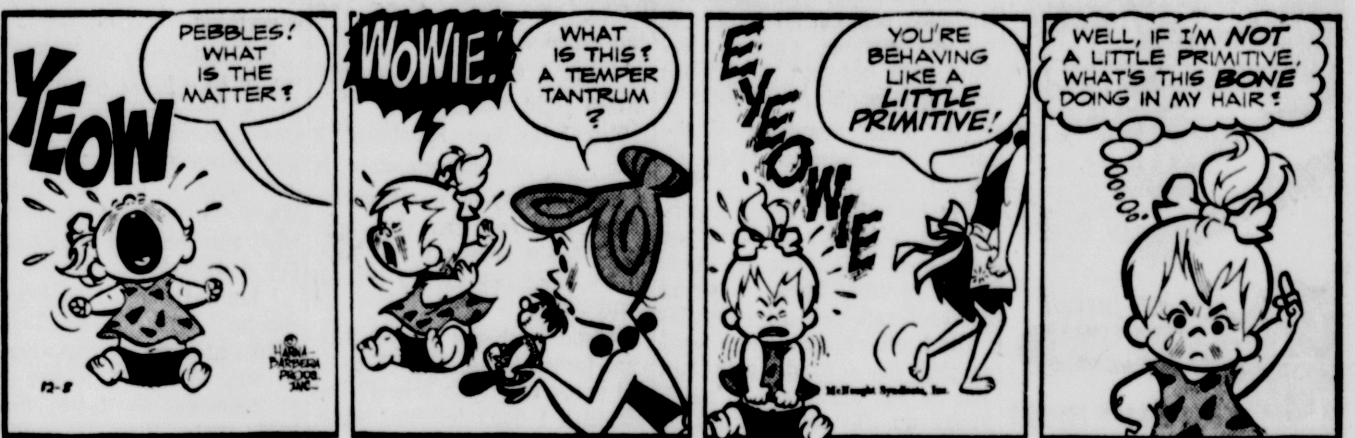

FOR YOU TO DO: All the ancient peoples thought of the solid earth as the center of the universe. Now we know the earth is a planet revolving around the sun. See if you can find the name of the man who first set us straight about this. His name begins with C.

Tim Walters of Sydney, Nova Scotia, wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you may win the weekly grand prize of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A few days ago I witnessed an incredible scene. A hulk of a middle-aged man, about 60 pounds overweight, was sprawled across the form of his critically ill mother as she lay semiconscious in a hospital bed.

The man was sobbing uncontrollably, begging his mother to try to remember what she had done with her will — the one leaving everything to him.

The other members of the family were outraged by his indecent display of avarice. Suddenly he pulled himself together and bellowed, "I hope you have good hospitalization insurance, Mother. These lingering illnesses can cost a fortune."

His brothers and sisters want nothing more to do with him and he has asked me to patch things up. He said his mother loved peace and harmony and that she would be unhappy about the trouble in the family. I believe they are justified in drumming him out of the tribe. What shall I do?—THERE.

Dear There: Stay out of this meat grinder. Whatever truce you might negotiate would be short-lived at best. This is their problem and it should be settled by them.

Guilty Conscience

Dear Ann: I'm a married woman with two teen-age children. Five years ago I became involved with a bachelor and became pregnant. My doctor told me I had a tumor—until I was seven months along. You can imagine my shock when he told me I would have a baby within eight weeks.

The little boy is almost 3 years old, and unfortunately, is a carbon copy of my bachelor friend. No one has said anything but a person would have to be blind not to see the resemblance.

Should I tell the boy who his real father is as soon as he is old enough to go to school? I'm afraid if I don't tell him someone else will and I'd hate to have the child hurt that way. I need your advice.—VIRGO.

Dear Virgo: Many look-alikes are not related. Because of your guilty conscience you probably are exaggerating the resemblance in your mind's eye.

Don't tell the child — or anyone else — that your husband is not the boy's father.

And for heaven's sake, get another doctor!!!!

Two Drink Limit

Dear Ann: My wife is one of the sweetest girls in the world. Delores has given me a fine family and we have just about everything we could want.

The problem is that whenever we go to a party Delores passes out cold as a mackerel after two cocktails. The poor girl gets into arguments and says insulting things to her best friends. When she begins to remember what she said and did she goes into a depression.

I know Delores is not an alcoholic because she never drinks at home — only when we go out. Moreover, if she were an alcoholic she'd be able to hold more than two drinks, wouldn't she?

This has been going on for two years. Every time it happens Delores takes an oath on her mother's life that she never will touch another drop of alcohol but when she gets out of my sight at a party she's as good as passed out. What can I do to help her?—D. F. L.

Dear D.F.L.: Your wife's form of alcoholism is unusual. And she needs help. It's useless, however, to try to force help on people who do not believe they need it. When (and if) she expressed the need for help, suggest AA.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing of stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Salvation Army Signs Needy For Yule Food

Salvation Army officials said today they are taking requests from indigent persons who wish to receive traditional Christmas food baskets.

The enrollment will continue daily except Saturday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Salvation Army Building at E. 4th and Walnut Sts. The registration will end Dec. 18, according to Maj. William Hathorn.

The Christmas kettles in place in the central business area help pay for the annual Yule project.

Key Club Donates $25 To School Fund Drive

Plans were approved to contribute $25 to the annual school charity fund campaign when the Key Club met Friday noon in Room 204 at the High School.

Brent English, president, presided. English was named to study plans for holding an inter-club dance with Wellsville and Beaver Local.

Six members aided the Kiwanis Club with its pancake supper Saturday night at Westgate School.

Dave Emmerling and Bob Fannin were named to attend the Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Mayor's Rites Slated

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP) —Funeral services for Harry C. Bennington, 71, mayor of Mount Vernon who died Saturday night in Harding Hospital, Columbus, after suffering a stroke, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Mulberry Street Methodist Church here. Burial will be in Mount Vernon. Bennington, a retired businessman, served several terms as mayor.
